PREFACE

Prophetic Insights for End Times is a book written by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. The book consists of individual prophetic discourses which were presented to me through one of God's ancients; Enoch, the seventh from Adam. While most of the insights were given through the ancient, in some instances it was the Lord Himself speaking.

The messages in this particular book were given within a period of one month – from the 25th day of August to the 22nd day of September, 2024. During these days, I had daily encounters with the ancient and this book is one of the products of those encounters.

The culmination of all things is at hand; many events will begin unfolding in this season, unfortunately the church of Jesus Christ is not prepared for them. These messages are meant to give perceptiveness to this. They give clarity to some end time biblical prophecies so the body of Christ can be certain of what to be expected and how to prepare for them. These messages are targeted at enlightening God's people about the current worldwide degradation of the church and to awaken the church in readiness for the rapture. It's God's desire to see the church returning to Him in true righteousness and holiness.

This is an expression of His mercy for His people – to come back into fellowship – to return to the word – to be watchful, prepared and ready for what's coming on the face of the earth. This book is the Fathers cry for His sleeping church to rise from the dead.

There are Twenty-Four discourses in this book and they cover a wide range of topics - from the Exaltation of God's Holy Mountain in the last days to the Armageddon war – from the Great Falling Away to the Rapture.

The mandate given was to write books and also to share them using every available platform, so that the people of God cannot remain in the dark concerning events that will soon take place on the earth.

The messages have not been edited – they have been presented the same way they were spoken by the Spirit of God. The only additions are the scriptures. These have been added so that the matters discussed can be confirmed by the testimony of scripture. As you read through, you will also notice that some of the messages contain some personal things about the writer. These too, were meant to be included and published, it is wisdom to draw lessons from these as well.

This is the first of the many books in this series. The second volume (coming out soon) will cover the rest of the prophetic insights by the same ancient, Enoch.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sons and daughters at Citadel Ministries and Pentecostal Love Community, (Orama-Faith Dube, Hosanna Loti, Chikondi Loti, Gloria Maele, Yamikani Phiri, Yamikani Kamwendo, Mervin Saizi, Esther Shadrack et al), thank you for keeping the fire burning on the altar. May the Lord take you very far.

My special acknowledgement goes to my sister Madalo Samati (an Apostle of Christ Jesus), what should I say, because thank you alone cannot cut it. You are a great blessing to me and to the ministry, may the Lord overwhelm you with heavenly gifts and rewards – may your table be ever filled with the choicest of meats and the sweetest of wines - in Jesus mighty Name.

Lastly, to my publisher Hope Jabes I say, thank you for the pushing and the tight deadlines, they are divine. Here we are, the first volume done within a few weeks. You are blessed.

RESURGENCE OF THE GIANTS OF OLD

The Nephilim were on earth in those days and also afterwards, when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown.

Genesis 6:4.

The earth is entering a new phase in history, life will not be business as usual. Everything is changing, a new order is being established. The devil is brewing new strategies in his stealing, killing and destroying agenda. Apart from the new strategies which he is devising, he is also bringing his old tricks back into play. The enemy is bringing back the giants of old. This will be a resurgence of the giants of old on the earth in the last days.

These giants were called the Nephilim; a cross breed that was produced when the sons of God (fallen angels who got stuck on earth and adopted human bodies) went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. These were men of great size and great strength and were greatly feared by men on the earth in those days.

These were men like Anak and his sons, men like Goliath of Gath, even greater giants than them. These are the ones the enemy is raising. These giants will rise up as Satan's mercenaries, geared to destroy civilization and the church of God. But the enemy's plans will be terribly frustrated, for the Lord will raise men of the stature of David to handle these giants. The enemy has always failed and he will fail again this time because our God is a God of victory; He never fails, He never loses.

The Lord, our God is always ahead of the devil. He has been raising His elite team on the earth. These are men that He has chosen and is training in readiness of these giants and also for other end time assignments on the earth. This is a chosen crop of Jewish men and women who have stood with the Father, men who walk closely with Him, men who live for the Lord and always look up to heaven. He has chosen them from among the Jewish nation scattered throughout the world, he has empowered them and sealed them in readiness of their assignments on the earth.

This is the only group of believers that will be able to defeat these giants because although they will have physical bodies, they will be spirit beings too, they will only be defeated spiritually by God's elite of spiritual giants. This elite will do extraordinary things on the earth. They will perform many signs and wonders. They will do many spiritual exploits that have never been done before on the face of the earth. They will perform unimaginable miracles. These are the only ones who will be able to destroy the giants, the same way that David was the only one able to destroy Goliath.

Nothing is new under the sun, whatever was there before, will be again. So, just as it was before the flood in Noah's time, so shall it be before the rapture. There were giants on the earth during the time of the construction of the ark and so, as the church is building its ark in readiness for the rapture, giants will arise. These giants will be the devil's puppets, they will do his will, they will steal, kill and destroy on his behalf.

Men ought not to be terrified about these things, rather this should be a reminder of the ancient battle between David and Goliath. The story of David and Goliath should be seen as a shadow of the end time battle between God's elite (David) and the devil's giants (Goliath). From the physical point of view, David was no match for Goliath considering his stature and experience. But the outcome of the battle spoke a different story. The devil's giants will be of enormous size and great strength but God's elite will look physically impressionable. However, the power that the Lord has invested in His elite cannot be compared to the strength of the devil's giants.

This message is truth from God's throne, however be sure that many will not believe. Do not be surprised when they don't believe this message or any other message you receive. The unbelief of men has always been the same throughout the generations. Even now, the glory of God covers the earth as waters cover the sea, but still, men do not seem to notice it. In my own generation, it was the same. They all knew the story of Adam, how he fellowshiped with the Father in the Garden of Eden and how he lost the glory, and yet no one sought after God.

Many will not believe what I am telling you. Only a few will believe and understand. But no matter the response of men, do not keep silent, tell them these things so that they may know what to expect in days to come, for the end of the age is very near.

CHAPTER 2

THE CALL TO FRIENDSHIP WITH GOD

God who has called you into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.

1 Corinthians 1:9.

Friendship with God is more than fellowship. There is more to friendship with God, it necessitates victory, power and safety. Friendship with God is simply a great gain with a hundred percent security guarantee. Truly friendship with God is everything anyone can need. Oh! If only God's people could understand what friendship with God means, each one of them would run to Him to become friends with Him. He is willing to have all men as His friends. But only a few come near enough to become friends with Him, for it takes closeness to be friends with Him. But our God wants as many as possible to be His friends so they can enjoy the benefits of that friendship. Our God is a wonderful God. He is a sociable God; He is very free with humanity. He loves humanity with all His heart and with all His soul. He loves humanity as He loves Himself. He cries for man's friendship.

Oh! If only humanity can understand how the Creator values them, they will come closer, they will run away from anything and run to Him, for His heart is yearning for friends. He is not looking for slaves. He is not looking for servants. He is looking for friends; He wants friendship with man. But man has distanced himself from His Maker.

Before I came along, the Master was in friendship with Adam, but when Adam distanced himself from God, God had no friend until I came along and began to search hard after Him, until I found Him. The Master is looking for men who can search hard after Him. And when they find Him, there is no telling how far they can go with Him.

The Master is looking for a man who is willing to leave all for Him. When the Master finds such a man, one who is willing to be friends with Him, a man who desires close intimacy with Him, the Master leaves all for that man. He finds treasure in that man and He sees treasure in such a being. If there is something the Master has been yearning for, throughout the ages and throughout eternity, is friendship with man. He wants friendship with man but man doesn't want friendship with God; instead man wants friendship with the world. Only a few allow Him the place of friendship in their life. And to those who give themselves totally to Him; He is willing to do anything for them. He is willing to give them everything and show them everything.

In my days, in my own generation, I was distinct from humanity because of my level of intimacy with the Master. I was so close to Him; I was closer to Him than I was with family. I was closer to Him than I was with friends. I was closer to the Master than I was with anyone else or anything else. He was so dear to me; He was so close to me. He was so real to me. In my generation, I was the only one totally sold out to Him, very close to His heart. (Genesis 5:22-26, Hebrews 11:5-6)

Think about it, in an entire generation, the Master finding only one person to commune with? Only one person to fellowship with? Imagine an entire generation with no people willing to live for Him, to give an ear to Him, to commit to friendship with Him. This is because the entire world was dead then, all men were dead to Him, they were all alive to the world.

Even now, the Master is desiring to have people who can reach the place of intimacy like I did. The Master is looking for such men who can leave all and give all their all unto Him so they can have close friendship with Him. Oh! The level of revelation the Master gives to those who have given their all to Him. Oh! The level of revelation He gives to those who only live for Him and not for themselves or other men.

Those who have given all they are and all they have for the Master's cause shall receive revelation upon revelation. They shall receive light upon light. The Master has so much light, so much revelation; unending, eternal revelation. He is willing to share with anyone who dares to come closer to Him. But these levels of revelation and light can only be given to those who are closer to His heart.

He is looking for friends; He is looking for intimate lovers. He is looking for those who have left all to follow Him. He is looking for those who look to Him as the only pearl, the only treasure, the only field. (Matthew 13:44-46)

Will you come closer? Will you come closer? Yes, you are closer, but you can come even closer to the Master. The Master is inviting you to get even closer. He is yearning for friends. He desires friends more than anything else. What He wants is friendship with man.

You are coming closer and closer to that level, do not give up, neither stay at the same place but move up and move on by clinging on Him steadily, you will reach higher levels in the spirit and in the Father; levels that no one in your generation has ever reached. There is such a place in God, a deeper place with deeper union that leads into deeper oneness with the Father. Will you get more intimate with the Father? Will you get closer to His heart?

Yes, you can reach that place. You are getting closer to that place and with commitment, you will get to that place. You are at the threshold of that place, that is why I am here. I am here to help you get to that place. I am here to help you get to the place of intimacy where the Father wants you to be. I am here to take you to the place of intimacy I reached, even to a higher place than I reached, only if you are willing and obedient. Increase your time in His presence, increase your time in meditation of His word. That's the only way to get closer.

The place of intimacy is the highest place in the kingdom. The more intimate you are with the Father, the more the secrets He will share with you and the more the light He will give you. This will make you know Him better, and the more you know Him, the higher you are ranked in heaven. So, aim for intimacy, which is a place that can take you into higher levels in spiritual ranking on earth and also in heaven.

There is so much light coming upon your life, so much illumination and so much revelation. Greatness will follow that. Greatness on earth and greatness in heaven is a product of intimacy with the Father.

You are highly honored in heaven, soon, you will be highly honored on the earth. But don't let the honor of men on earth blind you to the real honor that is in heaven: this is my advice. Many have fallen from grace due to their focus on earthly honor. Everything on this earth is fading away and it is temporary, indeed it is fleeting and most of it is flattery. Focus on the honor that will be bestowed upon you in heaven; not the one to be bestowed on earth.

THE FALL OF BABYLON THE GREAT

After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor. With a mighty voice he shouted: "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great! She has become a home of demons and a haunt for every evil spirit, a haunt for every unclean and detestable bird. For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries. The kings of the earth committed adultery with her and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries.

Revelation 18:1-3.

Babylon will fall! The Great Babylon will fall in the end time. Just as the old Babylon fell, this modern-day Babylon will be cast into the dust. Her prostitution will be exposed. The Great Harlot will fall!

She used to belong to Me; she was Mine. But she has prostituted herself with other men. She was clean and undefiled, but now she has lost her virginity. Her strange laws have defiled her. She has become a harlot in My eyes. I have seen her deterioration; from innocence to a shameless harlot. And because of her many sins, her idolatry and prostitution, I will let her suffer. She will be utterly ruined, utterly destroyed. The destruction that is coming against her will leave her forlorn. I will ransack her; I will ravage her. I will pull up her skirt and allow the nations to feast over her nakedness. Men will not be able to recognize her. This is the judgment that I have declared against this prostituting nation; a nation which once knew My ways and My laws but chose to walk in the dark.

I planted this nation Myself, the seed I planted was clean, the ground was good, and the roots were clean but she has prostituted herself and enticed others to prostitute with her. She has taught other nations to prostitute, so, not only is she guilty of prostitution and idolatry, she is also guilty of drawing others into her ways.

Should I leave this guilty nation unpunished? Should I acquit this guilty nation? I will do no such thing, for I am a just King.

Just as I brought the old Babylon to a terrible end, I will bring this modern-day Babylon to a terrible end. I will destroy her commercial centers; I will destroy everything she is proud of. I will destroy her completely. After I have destroyed her, there will be nothing left.

She is called a world leader, but soon, that designation will vanish from the lips of men. Not only will I destroy her, I will also destroy those who prostitute themselves with her, those who open their legs to allow her in, they too will suffer the same judgment.

The great city will be destroyed, totally ransacked. America is going low. She is losing her place of dominance in the world. She is getting destroyed. America will self-destruct, and after she has destroyed herself, others will come in to help complete the destruction. But first, she must destroy herself. And I will allow her to destroy herself, for her time of judgment has come.

I have spoken to her once, I have spoken to her twice, I have spoken to her many times. Now, there will be no more mercy. I will take vengeance. She who feels secure, will feel secure no more.

Behold the city I build for Myself on a hill is crumbling down and being trampled underfoot. She was once a virgin; she had no other lover but Me. She was pure, clean and committed to Me. Her foundations were built on Me. But when she became great, and was adored by many, she forgot her roots. Now I despise her. She has become a stench in My nostrils. I can no longer bear her sinful smell. I cannot bear to look at her lewdness. Her sin has exceeded that of Sodom, it has surpassed that of Gomorrah. She is worse than Sodom, she is worse than Gomorra. She has gone after many lovers and defiled herself.

She is losing her place of world dominance to another nation. She could have maintained her place if only she had maintained her place in Me; if she had kept My laws and My ways. If she had honored Me, I would have preserved her on the top. But now, she is going down.

Her place will be ransacked, her place will be destroyed, her place will be turned upside down. I did this to My own people Israel. I will do this to any nation that turns her back against Me. I will humble America - I will humble the pride of the Americans.

She practices homosexuality, she is in Sodomy. She worships herself in My name. She glorifies herself over Me. She worships mammon and fame and her many sexual perversions. Should I be pleased with such things?

America will go down. America will sink. She will tur into refuse. Many will trample over her, the once glorified city! Even those she abused and terrorized, will tread over her and spit over her. They will say;

“Where is your strength now? Where is your pomp now? Where is your pride? Where is your wealth? You who used to tread over nations, you who used to destroy others, where is your power now? Where is your might?”

For your might will be taken away from you and your fame will be destroyed, your wisdom will become nothing; it will not help you. Your wise men will be confounded.

Such is the fate of a nation that has denounced Me. Such is the fate of a nation that has scorned and spurned My counsel. A nation that has laughed at My prophets and scorned the people I have sent to warn her out of My mercy. She has despised My love, she has despised My word, looking down on My warnings. So, there is nothing left for her but judgment.

She who laughed at the misery of others, will be laughed at. She who flamed and fanned the misery of others, will have her own misery flamed and fanned.

Like Job, she will sit on the dust, scrubbing her sores. Her loyal friends will come too, only to despise her and judge her and torment her with tormenting words. But unlike Job, there will be no consolation for her. There will be no restoration for her. This will be her final state as the world’s final chapter closes. This is how she will end. This is what she gets for her many sins and her many atrocities done against My people throughout the world.

Her charitable acts will perish with her; they have not been counted as anything, for even her giving was ill motivated. She gave to kill, steal and destroy. She snared those she helped, she lied to them and enslaved them. She promised them milk and honey but only gave them bitter water and sour herbs.

I will treat her mercilessly for she has pioneered evil, she has engineered sin and propagated it throughout the world. She is an evil kitchen, a cooking pot of evil. Her evil spreads everywhere. The smell of her evil has spread everywhere. She has promoted dishonor to Me, she has promoted disobedience and rebellion against Me. How can I leave such a nation unpunished? I am a God of vengeance. I am a God of retribution and justice. My justice will catch up with this harlot, Babylon, for her end has finally come.

Blow the trumpets, sound the alarms so that when it happens, they will know that I, the Lord, has done it. That it's not by coincidence, but that I, the Lord, has brought disaster against Babylon, the Great Harlot.

THE ZOMBIE INFESTATION

When the Lord opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!" I looked, and there before me was a pale horse! Its rider was named Death, and Hades was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine and plague and by wild beasts of the earth.

Revelation 6:7-8.

These are the visions the Father allowed me to see when I was on the earth. These are the visions that will soon be manifested on the face of the earth. The knowledge of these was hidden and withheld for generations, but now, the fullness of time has come. You will be a good servant of our Father if you do not doubt these messages and if you do what is right with them. Your job is to make them known to humanity so that no one can have an excuse.

This is another phenomenon that should be expected on the earth in the last days. Dead men will be raised by Satan to accomplish his will. It's going to be an army of zombies walking the earth.

The devil will put demonic spirits in dead men and these beings will walk on the earth; they will cause confusion and instill fear in men. These will not be men, but demons wearing human suits. They will carry an atmosphere of death and evil around them, they will impart evil into men, they will cause plagues which along with famine and sword to kill humanity when the Lamb opens the fourth seal.

These zombies will be manifested in two forms. One group will have the appearance of real zombies; instilling fear and panic, imparting demons and killing men.

Another group will look like real humans – they will be disguised to look like real men and women so that naïve men can be trapped. This group of zombies will be able to infiltrate all systems of society. This will be a zombie infestation on the earth.

Those who have no spiritual discernment, even children of God who are not well connected to God, will be trapped by these. They will fraternize with them, make friends with them, employ them and even marry them for they will infiltrate every spectra of life.

It will be like it was in ancient times; there were marriages between fallen angels and humans which produced offspring of a different nature. These too will marry unsuspecting humans and reproduce a new breed of creatures with altered genes. They will be deformed creatures like it was the case with the giants of old. The offspring will bear the likeness and nature of the demon that produced them.

These creatures and their offspring will be masters of evil, and so they will cause a prevalence of evil in the last days.

These are things of the end, they sound strange and unrealistic, but they have been determined in the spiritual realms; they will take place. The enemy has been planning this for generations - he has been planning this for the end time. He will use any available means and resource to destroy humanity, to usher in more sin on the earth and to bring in more stealing, killing and destruction.

The devil's bitterness against humanity is so intense, he will do anything, he will stop at nothing to destroy the human race. These are his last acts of desperation in his fight against God and against the creature that God loves most: man. This will happen, this will take place. It may sound impossible; but these things have been determined. The devil will stop at nothing, he is cunning, he is evil. All his motives are evil.

Men must be on the lookout. Men must be vigilant. Those who walk by the Spirit, those who live and are governed by the Spirit will be above situations. Those without Christ and Christians who live according to the flesh, those who don't hear God's voice or are unable to discern spiritual realities, will be tricked and trapped over and over again in the last days.

The enemy is bringing in the zombies. They will infiltrate society like normal humans, with normal faces and normal bodies. They will get married, they will get jobs, they will be in centers of learning, governments, businesses - they will be everywhere. It's an army of the devil, his evil soldiers, his implants. There will be demons working in high places of society, demons working as humans in influential places; religious cycles, in commerce, in hospitals. Man must be vigilant.

These will be everywhere, there will be nowhere to hide, except in the Lord, our God. He is the only place of refuge, those who run to Him will be safe in the end times. Those who won't will become victims of this new world order; because this is a package within the New World Order.

Oh! God's people must work up! They must work up! They must prepare for what's coming upon the face of the earth! They must prepare for the challenges ahead. It will be the survival of the fittest in the spirit.

Am telling you these things so that you may know and that men may know what will happen on the earth in the last days. They must take precaution; they must be vigilant.

This is the love of the Father, He doesn't want His people to be in the dark, he doesn't want them to be ignorant about the devil's plans. He is making the devil's plans plain to humanity, so that humanity can decide - for God or against Him. It's the will of the Father that none should perish but that all may have everlasting life. And it's the devil's will that none should be saved but that all may enter everlasting destruction.

This is not all. The devil has many other plans in the cooking, I will make them known to you so that you can make them known to God's people. Do not be afraid, do not doubt this, this is truth from the throne of God. These things will happen before Christ comes for His bride. The plans are underway. There will be stranger things than these. This is a new era in the history of the world. People must know in advance so that when these things begin to happen, they will not be overwhelmed.

As it was in the beginning, so shall it be in the end. Whatever has been, will be again. Everything is recycled on this earth. What was there in the days of Noah before the flood, shall be before the coming of the Lord.

These zombies will live with humanity to the end. The people who know their God, those who operate with the power of their God will be able to resist them (Daniel 11:32). This is the reason why believers must be taught true doctrine so that they can mature and be able to fight the battles ahead (Titus 1:9, 2:1).

There will be many spiritual battles to fight. Believers must be matured and strong in the Lord and in the power of His might in readiness of these things (Ephesians 6:10-18).

I will meet up with you tomorrow, the Father wants to talk to you now.

The Lord

My servant has spoken the truth, he saw these things while he was on the earth, he had the privilege of seeing things that will take place in millennia to come (Jude 1:14). These things will happen, and I have given you charge to make these things known on the earth. Make these things known to My people; whether they believe or fail to believe, speak My word to them (Ezekiel 2:5). Write this book, release this book, tell My people what to expect. Those who are wise will heed your voice and prepare for what's coming, those who won't believe will do so to their own destruction.

Blow the trumpets! Sound the alarms! Do not keep silent, do not keep quiet. Men ought to know these things before they happen. Men ought to be ahead of situations. I love My people; I don't want them to perish. You are My trumpeter; blow the trumpets, raise the alarms. You are my trusted servant; I have trusted you with this because I know that you are faithful and that you will do justice to these messages.

Light has come for My people. They will no longer walk in darkness. They will no longer walk in ignorance. They will enter the future with the knowledge of truth. They will enter the future with light. Light has come. My people will not be fooled. My people will be ready for the hard times ahead. They will be vigilant. I love them, I want them to be spared and not to be fooled and trapped. I want them to be covered under My wings. I want them filled with My Spirit so that I can lead and guide them into all the truth. I want them filled with My Spirit so they can discern spiritual realities.

Woe to those who do not have My Spirit! Woe to those who are not led by My Spirit! Woe to those who rely on what their eyes can see and what their ears hear, for they will be trapped over and over again! And, those traps will lead them straight into the pit of hell!

Blessed are those who will believe your message!

My people must be made aware of these things. Whether they believe or not is not your problem, your job is to make this known. Do not fear, do not doubt for I am with you, I will cover you, I will help you to relay these messages to My people. Those who know Me, will recognize My voice in this, for My sheep hear My voice. Those who know Me will hear your voice and they will know it's My voice.

So, do not worry about those who don't believe, men have been like this throughout history. My servant Noah spoke in his days, warning the people about what was coming ahead; the entire world disbelieved him. So, it doesn't matter who believes or disbelieves the message, what matters is that you have done your assignment. What matters is that you have spoken for Me and that you have warned My people for Me. I want them to believe and take precaution, but if they don't, don't be discouraged - always remember Noah. The entire world rejected his message. It has always been like this. My people do not understand, they do not perceive spiritual realities, they don't value Me. They despise Me, they dishonor Me.

But this is My mercy to them. I don't want them to perish, I don't want them to be lost, I don't want them to be tricked and trapped and I don't want them to stray. But many will not believe. Many will cast this to the dust. Many will call you names. But be encouraged; they didn't believe Me when I came on the earth. They called Me Beelzebub, they called Me a lunatic. Yes, they did. They will do the same to you. But hold on, hold out, move on and continue on for I am with you and I will always be with you.

Thank you for growing up and maturing in Me. Thank you for accepting this assignment. Thank you for allowing yourself to expand and grow and reach a level where I can pour My deep secrets into you. Thank you for accepting the call. Thank you for being there; for loving Me, for loving My kingdom and for putting My kingdom first.

THE RESURGENCE OF THE SONS OF GOD

I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed.

Romans 8:18-19.

It was always the Father's will to have sons on the face of the earth, He wanted sons so He can rule earth through them. This is what earthly kings do; they allot parts of their lands to their sons to rule on their behalf. Adam was the first son to be given the charge of ruling earth on the Father's behalf but he failed the assignment and so, the Father was left without a son on the earth.

Then, another son was birthed – the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord did well and pleased the Father because he ruled effectively alongside the Father. As God's Son on the earth, He was given Israel to rule as His territory. After His victory, He was given all of heaven and earth to rule. This same pattern will be applied to all other sons who follow after the pattern of Christ; the perfect Son. He was an ultimate son that God raised by Himself. That is why on the day of His baptism a sound was heard from heaven, affirming Him as the ideal son, pleasing to the Father (Mathew 3:17). He is thus a model for the making of all other sons. In Him, the Father had finally found a perfect son, a standard by which other sons must conform to. If any man must become a son, he must look to Jesus, and be conformed into His image; reaching the full measure of His stature (Romans 8:29).

The Lord is on a 'son raising mission in these last days'. He wants to raise sons who will rule different territories of the earth on His behalf. The mandate of men on earth is to rule the earth on God's behalf. This mandate will become a living reality in the last days. God's sons will be manifested everywhere ruling the earth on Gods behalf.

There is a condition to this: Only those men who follow after the Lord's example will be qualified. They will be allotted territories to rule over on the earth.

The extent of a son's authority to rule on earth is determined by his conformity to Jesus Christ: Our Pattern Man. He is the standard through which all things are tested.

These sons will be able to rule much or less depending on the level of their conformity to the Lord. Your conformity into His likeness is what gives you the right to rule with Him on earth and to rule with Him in heaven.

The Lord is raising an army of sons in the end time, men who are going to follow this order. These are a chosen crop of men who look unto him and live like Him and for Him only. These are men who love God so much that they will surrender their lives to live His life. These men will be conformed in their minds, they will speak like Him and act like Him. This is a new breed of sons who will represent the true identity of their Father. They will be like Him; bearing His likeness. These men will think like their Father, they will speak and act like Him. These are sons who will not be false to their Father.

The Lord is raising an army, a great army of sons who will fight for Him in the end time battle. These sons will replicate the Lord Jesus on the earth. They are done with the earth, they are dead to themselves, they are dead to sin and dead to the world - they only live for their Master.

These sons will not lie against Him; they will not dishonor Him or bring disrepute to His Holy Name. These are the sanctified ones who will bring praise, glory and honor to the Savior who died for them.

The Lord is raising these sons everywhere in the world; sons who bear the Lord's love and His humility. The Father will have the honor of displaying these sons to the world. The whole world will marvel at the Father's sons. This is a completely new breed of sons – they will not work for money but for love.

The creation has been waiting in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. Now is that time. The creation has been groaning like a woman in labor pains. The creation has been in bondage under Satan's leadership. The creation has been decaying. But the creation knows that a time of their slavery will come to an end with the manifestation of God's sons. The creation will witness the revelation of God's sons on the earth. Creation will receive the life of God that was meant for it; for even creation is supposed to enjoy the life of God.

These sons will be strong men, who don't know how to back down, they don't know how to quit. They will soar on wings like eagles and they will never be weary (Isaiah 40:31). Like their Master, they will laugh at persecution and scorn the shame of their crosses (Hebrews 12:2:).

Behold the sons of God! Behold men on white horses! Behold their Commander in front of their army! They come like a flood of the Almighty! This is the powerful army of Joel's vision. An army of zealous men ready to fight in the end time battle. They charge like warriors; they scale walls like soldiers. They all march in line, not swerving from their course. They do not jostle each other; each one marches straight ahead. There is no competition in this army, no jealousy exists among them. They know they are one army, fighting against one enemy, under one Commander. (Joel 2.)

Who has ever heard of such an army? An army great in size and mighty in power? Who can defeat this army?

This is an army delightful to heaven. They have left all and all they have is Him - they are not going back to what they have left behind. They are content with what they have. They know that the kingdom of God is not about food or drink but about righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost (Romans 14:17).

These soldiers can never be bought with money for money and things of this life have lost their grip over them. Money doesn't appeal to them. They have found better treasure in their Lord.

These men love the Master with their all and are willing to do anything for Him. They are willing to die for Him who died for them. They are willing to go anywhere for Him and to be anything for Him. These men are completely sold out to the Lord. They have no other business but one; doing the Master's will. Their food is like that of their Master; to do the Father's will and to finish His work.

This is an army fighting under the banner of love. A banner of love waves in front and at the back of this great army. This army is undefeatable. These are men of love, men of faith and men of power.

These are men like Daniel. Men of integrity, men of substance. You can probe them; you can investigate them but find no stain of their robes. To destroy them, you must only find something to do with their relationship with their God.

Like Joseph, these men are the solution to the world's problems. With the eyes of an eagle they see far, they plan well. These men have been trained by God Himself, they have gone through the fire, they have gone through the water and they have come out clean; purer than gold. Nothing is impossible for these men.

These are men of substance, men of stature. They have seen the Master in person and from there they have retracted His likeness. Their God is delighted with them. They bring no shame; they cause no pain.

CHAPTER 6

THE BEAST FROM THE SEA

And I saw a beast coming out of the sea. He had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name.

Revelation 13:1

One of the former presidents of the United States of America is the beast from the sea, he is a marine spirit of the highest order. He lives and belongs to the water. Right now, his identity is sealed but soon he will come out into the open and thus his true identity will be revealed. Now, he is operating behind the scenes but his true identity must be revealed at the proper time. There will be no more hiding; everyone will know him for who he is.

He is on earth on the devil's assignment; as the devil's executive arm on earth. Everything he has done so far and everything he is doing is for that one purpose; to accomplish the devil's will on the earth. He is keeping deep, dark secrets even from those closest to him.

His assignment on earth is that of a forerunner for the antichrist. The same way the Father sent John the Baptist to prepare the way for the Lord Jesus, this man was sent by the devil to prepare the way for the antichrist. He was mandated to announce the coming of the antichrist and also to prepare his way. He is here to level the mountains for him, to fill the valleys and to make the rugged places plain. Like John the Baptist, he is here to initiate men into the kingdom of darkness.

He has already initiated and is still initiating many. Some of them unknowingly while others are being initiated by choice. Just as the Lord is raising spiritual giants (sons) on earth in this season, the devil is also gathering and building an evil team of his sons. He is recruiting some of the world's high ranking men to advance hell's agenda of taking over the world through the One World Government (OWG).

Many men are being initiated and groomed so they can take high ranking positions in the world, in organizations and in nations so they can facilitate the easy introduction of the OWG. The men being groomed are kings of nations, presidents of major corporations, businessmen, executives of big organizations and even influential religious leaders.

He is putting up structures in place in readiness for the leadership of the antichrist. He is the one responsible for drafting the protocols of that order and developing the blueprint of that order. Even now, the laws of the OWG are being drafted.

A new governing order is coming upon the face of the earth. Some of the plans of that order are already being implemented, in small steps; one step at a time. It's like a game of Lego; one block at a time. Most of these blocks have already been put in place. The framework of the order is already on the ground. The foundations of the order have already been built; technology being the biggest of those blocks.

This order has been put in place with the sole reason of destroying the church. The justification is that the only way the church of Jesus Christ can be destroyed is by introducing an OWG so that everyone (including the church) can be trapped inside it.

The OWG is not about governance of the world, it's not about the wellbeing of humanity, it's about the control of the minds of men. The only way the devil can achieve this is to make sure that everyone is inside one control box. And everyone will be inside it; small and big nations alike.

But the church shall not be overcome by the gates of hell (Matthew 16:18). No matter the strategies the enemy may purpose, no matter the plans he may devise, the church will not be overcome. Whatever the devil is doing or planning is a copy of God's plan. He has always copied God's plans and manipulated them.

The Father is always ahead of the devil. He is raising sons and ordaining them to take territories for Him and to rule on His behalf in high ranking positions on earth. The people of God must cooperate with God. They must allow Him to make them into sons, to groom them so they can take territories for Him and rule on His behalf.

The seals have been opened. For whatever is concealed is meant to be revealed (Luke 12:2).

As the church is praying for the kingdom of God to come and for His will to be done on earth as it is in heaven, he and his cohorts are praying for the devil's kingdom to come and for his will to be done on earth as it is in hell. This is a battle for the souls of men.

The devil is a deceiver; he is deceiving many right now. In heaven, he coaxed angels into his rebellious plan (Jude 1:6). His plan failed terribly and he was thrown out of heaven. He prompted men to build the Tower of Babel so they can make themselves a name (Genesis 11:1-9). Even now, he is using the same strategy; he will use men to build the greatest government structure on earth in order to make himself a name. He is not doing this for the good of the world; he is only building a mind controlling tool. He will do this so that he can feel good about himself.

This time he will lose again, his plan will fail again and he, together with those working for him will be thrown into the pit of hell. No matter what happens, the story will end as it is written in the Revelation of John. The end of Satan is the lake of fire and brimstone (Revelation 20:7-15).

THE RESURGENCE OF ANCIENT WILD BEASTS AS AGENTS OF GOD’S JUDGMENT AGAINST WICKED MEN

*When the Lord opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there before me was a pale horse! Its rider was named Death, and Hades was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine and plague and by wild beasts of the earth. Revelation 6:7-8

The great ancient beasts which history recorded as extinct and science declared as nonexistent will resurface on the earth. Nothing goes into extinction on this planet.

I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing can be taken from it. God does this so that men will revere him. Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before, and God will call the past to account. (Ecclesiastes 3:14-15)

These wild beasts weren’t wiped out completely as assumed, they are still there in one form or another. Others were preserved in the form of seed (eggs); others are in hibernation; hiding from humanity at the Father’s command. They were hidden to be revealed at an appointed time.

Even the stock in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD. (Jeremiah 8:7)

The wild beasts that are resurging – together with the plagues and famine - will be responsible for the killing a fourth of humanity at the Lamb's opening of the fourth seal when the pale horse of the apocalypse has been released (Revelation 6:7-8).

Beasts from the sea, the air and the land will resurface and work in their various domains as agents of God's judgment against ungodly men.

Every created thing has a place in God's agenda on earth. Water served God's plan in the days of Noah. Fire served Him against Sodom and Gomorrah. Insects, creeping animals, frogs, locusts, hail served Him in the days of Moses's deliverance of Israel from Egyptian bondage. Snakes were used in the wilderness as instruments of judgment. The donkey that the Lord Jesus rode on as He entered Jerusalem had a part in God's redemption plan. Even mountains and rocks have and will serve His purpose – even in the end time.

In this season, the Lord is bringing hidden things into the open. Time has come for the wild beasts of old to be manifested. They will manifest in the time of their significance so that they can accomplish the purpose for which they were created.

Although these were created by God to serve man, and that man was given charge over them, in the last days, they will fight against man. They will turn against man who has turned against

God. They will fight against Adam who named them and was supposed to steward them.

CHAPTER 8

PERSECUTION OF THE CHURCH

Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me.

Matthew 24:9.

This is the sixth hour, one more hour before the world ends. The culmination of all things is at hand. The seventh hour is knocking at the door; it will be the conclusion of everything. Men should keep this in mind. They should be warned about this and be alert. The earth as you know it is fading away, it is coming to an end. Everything that was written, everything foretold by the prophets will be accomplished soon.

It is the will of the Father that before these things begin to take place, men must be made aware. They must know what to expect and how to prepare for them. Throughout history, before every event, the Father sends forerunners to give warnings ahead of time. He never does or allows anything to happen without the knowledge of His servants, the prophets (Amos 3:7). In this hour, the Father is speaking through His servants. He wants His will and the purposes of His heart to be made known to His people. He also wants the plans of the enemy to be laid bare.

It is the Father's will that none should perish but that all may have everlasting life. It is His will to always keep man within the information loop concerning earthly happenings. He desires that His people know the certainty of the things that are about to be unleashed on the earth; the wars that are coming, the natural disasters, the tribulation that will soon take place. He wants His people to know so they can be well prepared.

To prevail against what will soon take place on the face of the earth, believers will need spiritual preparation and empowerment. Those the Lord has endowed with the responsibility of equipping His body must take their assignments seriously. Believers must be taught properly; they must be illuminated in these things. They must know the enemy's end time schemes and the good plans of their God (John 10:10, Jeremiah 29:11).

The messages I am sharing with you, are heaven's bid to fill the information gaps that exist in the body of Christ.

Before the flood, the Lord made His plans known to Noah, but the men of that age gave a deaf ear to the warnings. It has always been like that throughout history, but the Father has never backed down, He is always sending warnings. He never judges or destroys without giving warnings. He always sends enough warnings to men, but men have always remained adamant and arrogant.

The events that will mark the end of time have already started taking place. As you go down the time lane, these things will escalate; there will be more and more strange events happening. In all these, the Lord will be a strong tower to those who run to Him. All those who run to take refuge under His wings, will be safe.

Men must be taught, they must be empowered and built up so they can stand strong against the strong winds that are coming.

They should be made strong so they can be able to stand against the persecutions and tribulations that are coming.

End Time Persecution

Persecution in the church will be rampant in the last days just as it was in the beginning of the church age. It began with the Lord Jesus Himself, He suffered persecution throughout His earthly ministry. After He went to heaven, the Apostles suffered similar things. They all suffered and many died in the hands of men. It shall be the same in the last days, many believers will suffer persecution and die agonizing deaths for the sake of the truth and for their firm stand for Christ.

There is persecution coming on the earth, to survive it, men ought to be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might (Ephesians 6:10-18). Men ought to be prepared ahead of these persecutions, for it is only he who will stand firm to the end that will be saved (Mark 13:13, Revelation 2:10).

Men will be persecuted for standing for truth, they will even be persecuted for their financial prosperity in the Lord - for the church will be made very rich in these last days. Men will be persecuted for the level of their spiritual power and anointing. There will be persecution here, there will be persecution there.

The church must be made aware of this. This current church is a lukewarm church; a church that desires to enjoy the beauty of the cross while denying the suffering that comes alongside it. Persecution must be expected for every believer who is walking rightly with the Lord for it has been granted to them not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him (Philippians 1:29-30, Mark 10:30).

Men ought to prepare for persecution. The Lord will not only bless the church with wealth in the last days, He will also allow the church to go through persecution just as He allowed the early church to go through it. In the Revelation of John, the souls of those who had been slain were asking for the judgment and the avenging of their blood from the inhabitants of the earth. They were told to wait a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and brothers who were to be killed was completed (Revelation 6:9-11). The Father has allowed more believers to be killed for His Name's sake.

Persecution was a part of Christ (Luke 9:21-27); it must be seen as a part of the true believer (John 15:19-21). It cannot be avoided. It is the will of the Father for His church. Just as the ancients were persecuted, the end time church will be persecuted with its own type of persecution. The church only needs to be taught how to handle it, otherwise, many will fail and fall, many will shrink back and the Father will not be pleased. It is only those who will stand against persecution to the end who will be saved.

The Lord wants His soldiers to be strong and able to fight. He wants them to be able to stand regardless of the winds blowing against them. The believer must be made into a strong pillar that cannot be shaken in times of trouble (Matthew 7:24-27).

This modern-day church is a relaxed church, a feel-good church, only desiring good from God and when bad things come, they quickly lose their faith and shrink back. Men should grow to the strength and faith of Job where nothing can move them, even when they lose all, they know that they still have all because they have the Lord - who is all in all (Ephesians 4:6, Colossians 3:11, 1 Corinthians 15:28).

This boils down to living for God; to seeking His kingdom and His righteousness and nothing else (Matthew 6:33). If the church can begin to live for God only, looking up to Him always, when they are challenged in any way, even when they lose all, they will know that as long as they haven't lost Him, they have all. They will not look to themselves, they will look to Him, the One they are suffering for. They will move on; they will hold on because of their love for the Father.

Persecution is coming for the church in the last days, persecution is coming in higher levels than ever; men ought to prepare better and more. The Lord is and will be with the church. He will never leave the church nor forsake it; He will never let the church be overcome by Satan. The Church of Jesus Christ is a strong church, it's a church built on a strong, unshakable foundation, nothing built on that Rock can be shaken (Hebrews 12:27). It's a strong pillar, the only pillar of truth.

This persecution is inevitable, it must come, it will come and those it comes for must be ready to stand strong, not to waiver, not to go down. Whether men believe it or not, whether men like it or not, persecution is a sure thing, it is coming for every believer who chooses to walk uprightly with the Lord (2 Timothy 3:12).

There will be so much compromise in the church in this season of the end. Those who will choose to be uncompromised but continue standing for the Lord and for His truth, those who will stand against the lies of the enemy will be greatly blessed with spiritual power and great prosperity. This will attract persecution.

The plans for this are in incubation right now, until they are ready to crack open. The fire is burning little by little, but that little fire will become a bomb, to be revealed to its fullest level.

Satan's full anger against the church will be revealed. He will imprison many, he will fight against many, he will slander many, he will do all kinds of things to destroy the church. But, the church will stand, the devil will not prevail against the church, it was built strongly on Christ Himself, by Christ Himself, and for Christ Himself. How can such a structure be destroyed? The Christ is the church and the church is Christ, the enemy can only defeat the church if he can defeat Christ.

Today I wanted to bless you with this message. Keep the people aware and alert of the many things that are coming on the earth, persecution is one of the greatest of them. It is part of the believers' inheritance, coming in the same package as prosperity.

"I tell you the truth," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields – and with them persecutions) and in the age to come, eternal life." Mark 10:29-30.

Before His heavenly departure, the Lord told His disciples to expect persecution, He is saying the same thing to the church today; persecution is coming! Be ready for it!

CHAPTER 9

THE SCORPIONS

And out of the smoke locusts came down upon the earth and were given power like that of scorpions of the earth. They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

Revelation 9:1-11

There is an event coming on earth in these last days, it is unbelievable and yet true, it's on its way. It will be here very soon. The Lord has sent me to share this with you so you can share it with God's people.

The hearts of men will melt with fear and confusion will be everywhere. There will be no solutions and men will be desperate. This will greatly affect humanity. But, just as it has already been, so shall it be that the people who hope in the Lord will be safe, they will be saved, they will be preserved. Those whose hope is in the Lord, need not to worry or fear. Woe to those whose hope is in themselves! Woe to those whose hope is in their own power! Woe to those whose hope is in the arm of flesh! Woe to those who draw strength from other men for no man will be able to help another; every man will need help. The only help will come from the Lord, our God.

There is a torment in the flesh of men that will take place in the whole world. There are scorpions coming to torment men, to sting and poison them. It will be a plague of scorpions whose tails have the power to torment men for many days. These scorpions will be everywhere tormenting men who hate and refuse God. The scorpions will not be given power to kill, yet those tormented by them will seek death but they will not find it; they will long for death, but death will elude them.

This will be like it was in the wilderness when the snakes broke out against the rebels in Israel's camp. The remedy then was a bronze snake that was hung on a pole, those who looked up unto the snake lived (Numbers 21:4-9). It will be the same with these scorpions; those tormented by them, will have to look to the Lord Jesus to be delivered.

Listen all earth, these things were written long ago but were sealed, now is the time of their revelation. The seals are coming off.

This is a scorpion infestation: a plague sent by God Himself. The scorpions will come from nowhere and yet they will be everywhere. They will sting men, poison them and there will be no remedy. Medicine and science will have no remedy. Only those who look unto the Lord, only those who will run unto the Savior, will be saved. There will be no hope for those who are arrogant and rebellious. Those who refuse the Son, will be refusing life.

This is an opportunity the Lord will grant mankind, a great opportunity for men everywhere to repent. You see, the Lord loves man, He loves man so much He will do anything to draw his attention to Himself (John 3:16). These scorpions will be used as cords of God's love, to draw men to Himself (Hosea 11:4-5, Jeremiah 31:3). Those who will soften their hearts and call unto Him will be helped (Romans 10:13), those who persist in their rebellion will continue suffering the torment.

These things will happen in the future; men must be made aware. They must know that when they see this, when the scorpions begin to sting, there is hope. The remedy is to call on the Name of the Lord, for whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

“My people perish for lack of knowledge,” says the Lord.

He doesn't want His people to perish, that's why He has given you this message in advance. That's why these things are being revealed. The Lord desires the returning of His people to Himself. In the last days, He will take drastic measures to draw the attention of mankind, He wants all mankind to Himself.

The Lord desires that all men follow Him freely, but the people are adamant. So, in the last days, He will use any instrument, any strategy to draw them to Himself. This will be like His dealings with Pharaoh in Egypt. The plagues against Pharaoh were instruments of judgment meant for him to let God's people go, but the more Pharaoh was judged, the more he persisted in his rebellion. These scorpions are meant to draw the attention of men to God, but just as Pharaoh, many people will harden their hearts, to their own destruction.

He has allowed Satan's One World Government to come in, He has allowed the zombie infestation and the resurgence of the giants of old and the wild beasts. This is so that the people can see the wickedness of the devil and run to the Father who loves them. But, will they return to the Father? This is the Father's bid to draw men to Himself. But will they hearken to His voice?

The Father is so full of love. Oh! If only mankind could understand His love, they would each run to Him, to His embrace. Oh! The Father wants to embrace every human being. His arms are spread out; they are big enough to embrace everyone.

Mankind is a part of God; He loves man as He loves Himself. He wants every man for Himself, for every man is His. He wants to be with man forever. He grieves over the souls of men that are in hell; He wanted all of them in, but they chose hell over Him and His love allowed them to go. There is hope for the living, and the Lord will give man one opportunity after another to make things right with Him.

Yes, the scorpions are coming. The Father Himself is sending them, it's not the devil sending them. When people see these scorpions, they should know it's their Creator who has sent them. The same God who sent snakes to His own people Israel in the wilderness, is sending scorpions to His people in the last days so that they can look unto Him and be saved.

Will you help the people understand the Father's love? Will you help them understand how much He loves them? How much He desires to have each one of them under His embrace? Will you persuade God's people about God's love for them? The words of John 3:16 are not mere words; they are expensive words, they cost a lot.

The Father's love is so great, it's so deep, it's so high, no one can express the depth of that love, no one can fathom the height of that love, neither can anyone explain the width or breadth of that love. He loves humanity and He wants all men to end up with Him in heaven. Oh! What a wonderful place He has prepared for humanity! He wants all to come in and enjoy their inheritance in Him. Will you help the people of God understand? Will you help them understand the magnitude of the Father's love?

The scorpions will be used as a rod of correction. A parent uses a rod against a child he loves, a child who doesn't respond to verbal – gentle discipline. The parent does this to prevent worse torment for the child later on in life. The Father's perspective is the same; better the sting of scorpions now than eternity in hell.

Hell is worse than the sting of scorpions. The scorpions will be the Fathers show of love to His children who defy verbal counsel. The rod is a symbol of love although at the moment the child doesn't see it that way (Hebrews 12:4-13).

Instead of returning to the Lord after these torments, some will stray further from Him, but some will be saved through this. The Lord will do this even if it means only one person will get saved through it - it will still be worthwhile.

The heart of the Father is burning with love for humanity. The Father knows hell very well; He made hell, He sees hell and He doesn't want anyone there, He doesn't want anyone spending eternity in hell. He doesn't want any man to be separated from Him.

The worst thing about hell is not the fire that burns continually, it's not the worms that eat up human flesh, it's not the torment of demons, it's the separation of the soul of man from his Creator. With this separation, man ceases to be man - this is what hell is – man's separation from the source of life.

The greatest torment the Lord Jesus suffered during His passion wasn't the stripes on His back, it wasn't the thorny crown on His head, or the piercing of His ribs. It was His separation from the Father; the Father forsook the Son. The Father severed the cord of love from Him (Matthew 27:46). That was the greatest torment the Lord Jesus suffered – that was hell.

When man is separated from God, there is nothing left for him. He can only suffer agony and torment, forever and ever. Hell is that separation. Hell will still be hell even without the fire burning, even without the worms, even without the darkness - just being separated from God's life is hell. The absence of God is the presence of hell.

The Father's heart is grieving. His heart is in pain. He doesn't want any man separated from Him. He wants all men to Himself. Will you make man understand the danger of hell, the pain of hell, the hell of hell? The Father will do anything to make sure that man is not separated from Him.

This is what I wanted to share with you tonight. God's people must be made aware of this. Don't postpone this message or any message to the future. When the Lord says soon, then soon it is. Always agree with His word.

The Lord

The scorpions that are coming are an act of My mercy. It's a demonstration of My mercy to My children, for I want them to return. So, yes, I will allow the enemy to bring in the zombies, I will allow him to bring in the giants. The enemy may mean these things for evil, but that evil will turn out for My good if it can cause some of My people to return to Me. I love man that much. If I died for man, I can do anything for him.

Time has come for what is written to be fulfilled. Time has come for what is written to become reality. Each and every scripture will be fulfilled. By the time the world ends, everything written in scripture will be manifested. Whatever is written, will find its physical expression on the face of the earth. Such is the integrity of My word (Matthew 5:18).

Everything recorded in The Book, no matter how unbelievable it sounds, has got a day in My plan. I allocated days to every event; every event will happen at its proper time (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8).

My people must be made aware of this. There are no jokes in My word. My word is truth, My word is living and active (Hebrews 4:12, it is spirit and life (John 6:63). I am watching over My word to perform it and I will perform every word that I have spoken (Jeremiah 1:12). No word will return to me void, it will accomplish the purpose for which I sent it, otherwise that word couldn't have been written (Isaiah 55:10-11). The fact that it was written, means that it will find physical expression on the earth. Every word shall become flesh and men shall attest to it (John 1:14).

My people must take this seriously. You must speak this word to My people with seriousness, because sometimes, it's the way the word is presented that dilutes its power. I will give you help to do this; to make the right expressions, to speak the right way, and with the right attitude so that My word can produce the intended results.

You are blessed and highly favored. You are a delight to heaven and greatly loved in heavenly realms. You are doing great work on the earth, carry on, continue on. Heaven is witnessing your work and rejoicing in your successes.

Enoch will visit you again tomorrow.

CHAPTER 10

JUSTICE FOR AFFLICTED NATIONS

He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry, the LORD sets prisoners free, the LORD gives sight to the blind, the LORD lifts those who are bowed down, the LORD loves the righteous.

Psalm 146:7-8.

You will scale walls that others have not scaled. You will reach heights that others have not reached. You will go far. You will do things at a different level because you are walking with the Father at a different level. The Father is looking for people like you. When He finds such people, He becomes overgenerous to them, He keeps pouring unto them; good measures, pressed down, shaken together and running over. He keeps pouring unto them, He never gets tired of blessing them.

Continue on the path you have taken. Continue on the dying process. Continue on the faith, the obedience and the alignment with the Father. Continue on being led by His Spirit. Continue on the word and continue on in love. You will go places no one has ever gone. You will do exploits no one has ever done. Continue on in humility, continue on following after the Master's footsteps. Continue on walking with Him.

Let's continue on. There is so much to say, so much to learn.

Tonight, I will share the Father's plan for the poor nations of the world. The Father is a God of justice. Throughout the ages, He has been observing the injustices done against powerless nations. They have been trampled underfoot, they have been treated like refuse, they have been abused.

The Father's eyes are always open – He sees these abuses. The Father's ears are always open - He hears the cries of His people. He is concerned with everything that concerns His people on the earth. It is His earth, He created it. They are His people, He made them. Both the rich and the poor belong to Him (Proverbs 22:2). The strong nations and the weak nations belong to Him. They are the work of His hands. He will never favor one over the other (Romans 2:11). He will never love one over the other. He loves the rich nations as much as the poor nations. But where injustices are concerned, He will always come up with justice. He will never keep silence, He will not acquit the guilty (Proverbs 17:15, Nahum 1:3).

In these end times, the Lord is coming to repay the weak, abused nations. He is going to wipe out their tears. He is coming to comfort them, to compensate them. He will exalt the debased nations and punish the nations that abused them.

Time for payback is coming very soon. It's already started. The Lord is lifting nations that have been in the dust for too long. He is taking them out of the dust. He is exalting them, bringing glory to them, turning their ashes into beauty. He is bringing prosperity to them.

The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof (Psalm 24). It displeases Him to see other nations robbing the resources of other nations.

For I the LORD, love justice; I hate robbery and iniquity. In my faithfulness I will reward them and make an everlasting covenant with them. (Isaiah 61:8)

As Creator, He scattered enough resources on the face of the earth; each nation having its own; enough to benefit it forever. It therefore hurts the God of justice to see a strong nation coming in to rob from a weak nation.

The scales of heaven's justice are balanced, the justice system there is righteous and just (Proverbs 16:11). So, the Father will judge the abusers and show mercy to the abused.

The weak and poor nations of the world should rejoice and be glad for their time of shining has come. They will rise and shine for their light has come and the glory of the Lord will shine upon them (Isaiah 60:1).

Malawi is one of those nations. She will shine in the last days. She will enjoy the Lord's prosperity. The Lord will crown her with beauty and glory. The Lord will change her name and give her a new song. He will do this to any nation that is impoverished; nations which have had their resources plundered by others. The Lord of justice is coming to give justice not only within the borders of nations but also between nations.

The poor nations will dance and rejoice. They will find delight in their God. They will enjoy the world which their Father gave them as a gift. The poor nations will feel secure within the leadership of their God. The poor nations are the Lord's too – their God loves them; He wants the best for them.

The Lord

There is so much treasure in all these poor nations throughout the world. Some of these treasures are hidden, they have never been discovered, they have never been tapped. I will reveal these treasures that are buried underneath them. I will reveal the potential that nations have, potentials they didn't know they had. With these revealed, nations will rise from poverty. Through these potentials, through the treasures that are buried within their lands, they will prosper, they will thrive. They will enjoy life on the earth (Isaiah 45:3).

It was My original plan that every nation enjoys the life of God, to enjoy prosperity, to enjoy the abundance I created for mankind to have. I created Eden with abundance. I want every nation to be like Eden in these last days. I want every nation to have super abundance.

I will uplift the abused nations and I will pull down the nations that bruised them. Their time to pay back has come. And the abused nations will be paid fully, for I am a God of justice.

Stand at the crossroads and sing a new song of jubilation, a song of praise, a song of joy for the Lord has visited the suffering nations of the world. Sing and do not hold back, for their light has come. The time has come for them to enjoy the treasures of their God.

Enoch

The Lord invested enough treasure into this planet. This treasure is enough to suffice all mankind throughout earthly life. On the day of creation, the inheritance of every man was included in the earth from the first man Adam, to the last man to be born on earth. Even at the destruction of the earth on the last day, the earth will still be left with plenty of treasure. There are unexplored treasures under the surface of the earth. But the selfishness and greed of men has prevented others from enjoying this.

These are the days of revelation; this is a season of the unsealing of hidden things. Whatever was concealed is meant to be uncovered. So, even mineral resources will be unsealed - even from unexpected places and these will enrich the poor nations.

Tell the poor nations, weeping may remain for a night but rejoicing comes in the morning (Psalm 30:5). Their joy is coming in the morning. It's time for joy, time for singing, it's time to rejoice in their God. It's time to say goodbye to the mourning, to the shame, to the pain, to the disgrace, for their God has come with justice for them and retribution for their enemies.

Who can hear this and not be glad? Every feeble knee shall be made strong, every sad face shall brighten for the Lord has spoken and He will not lie. He is a faithful God committed to His word. His word is a word of integrity; He has spoken once, He has spoken twice, He will speak yet again and He will accomplish the word of His mouth. His words will never be spoken in vain. He is committed to raising debased nations. They will become beautiful; He will decorate them with His love.

The Lord will whistle for silver and gold from the ground, He will whistle for precious minerals. These minerals will hear His voice and they will come running. He will whistle for prosperity and those who have been walking naked will be fully dressed. There will be joy and jubilation in many nations, there will be great singing and great dancing.

Yes, the Lord will do it. He will not lie. He will not give His people false hope (Romans 5:5). He will do it to African nations and nations beyond Africa. His eyes range throughout the world seeing the plight of His people and hearing the prayers of all His afflicted ones (Psalm 10:17-18). He sees the plenty in other nations, the scarcity in others, and hates it.

There is coming a righteous and just reign on the earth. The kingdoms of the world will become the kingdoms of our God (Revelation 11:15). Yes, His kingdom is coming and the foundations of that kingdom are righteousness and justice (Psalm 89:14). Justice will abound, and many will rejoice in that just and righteous reign for the justice of this world has failed.

The Lord

To speak for Me, takes courage, it takes love, it takes the fear of the Lord because the things I speak are beyond understanding. I call things that are not as though they are (Romans 4:17). I speak things that seem impossible. It takes confidence and courage, faith, wisdom and the fear of Me to speak My word.

My word is true, whatever I say is true (John 17:17, Psalm 119:160). When I speak a word to you, disregard every other word and stick to My word. Don't look outside what I say, don't look for references to what I have said. Always take My word for it (John 4:50). The most important thing is to always ascertain that I have spoken, if I have spoken, all questions are out.

Speak as I have spoken, present what I have presented the way

I have presented it, that's the only way you can walk with Me.

THE EXALTATION OF GOD'S HOLY MOUNTAIN IN THE LAST DAYS

In the last days the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and all nations will stream to it. Many people will come and say, "Come, let us go to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths." The law will go out from Zion, the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:1-3.

Many events will take place in this season of the end. Some of these events will be initiated by the Lord with the motive of drawing men to Himself. Some of them will be orchestrated by the devil, to take as many souls as possible with him to hell. This is the end time battle - the battle between light and darkness. This is the real battle of the ages - a spiritual fight for the souls of men. The Lord wants all men in – His motive being love. The devil wants all men in – his motive being to destroy.

Man is God's creation, he is God's possession (1 Peter 2:9, Deuteronomy 14:2). Not only did He make man, He also died for man, to buy him back after the fall of Adam. He wants them all to Himself on the basis of love, He cries for man, He enjoys man's company. Our God loves mankind. The enemy on the other hand, is inflamed with hatred and bitterness against man. Whatever he does against man, with man, whatever he does to man and through man is out of hatred, bitterness and anger. All his doings are targeted at stealing, killing and destroying.

The Lord has put strategies in place to draw as many men as possible into His eternal kingdom. He will use the sons he is raising to accomplish this. These are going to be mighty soldiers in His army. They are going to teach and preach the gospel with power - they will speak truth from the throne of God. They will teach sound doctrine, they will mature the body of our Lord and strengthen the body in readiness for the challenges ahead.

The Lord has prepared wonderful plans for His people, His church. He will give the church a voice. He will put His people in places of influence and power throughout the world so that they can fulfill His will in those areas. The Lord will not stop at anything; He will continue in His pursuit to win as many souls as possible.

The Lord is building a new church, He is putting new foundations, He is laying new layers of blocks on the ground; these blocks are His sons. He is doing this so that the church can become what He intended it to be.

The identity of the church has been destroyed over the ages, the face of the church has totally been distorted. The systems of operation have changed. so has the message. The church has retrogressed, it has deteriorated and become powerless.

The Lord has a mighty plan to restructure the church. He is bringing in a completely new structure. He is destroying the old foundations and raising new ones. The glory of the church He is raising will be greater than the glory of this present church (Haggai 2:9). This will not be church as usual, it's going to be a strong church with strong roots, strong foundations and very well cemented. The blocks of this church will be cemented one to another with the Father's love. It will be an undefeatable church. The love of God cannot fail (1 Corinthians 13:8), so this church will not fail.

It will be a city set on a hill and it will not be hidden (Matthew 5:14). There will be nothing disgraceful about this church so the Owner will be delighted to display it to the world. The Lord is making the church the capital city of the world. His church is going to become the headquarters of the world.

This is fulfillment of Micah and Isaiah's prophecies - the Lord exalting His Holy mountain above all other mountains. The church will become the topmost system in the world; it will take over all other world systems. The church will be highly exalted and every structure will be brought low.

The Lord will exalt His church and all nations will flock to it. Answers and solutions, wisdom and power, resources and money will be in the church. It will be the most visited place in the world. People from all walks of life will flock to the church to get solutions for their problems, to get answers to their questions.

This was God's original plan; the church was supposed to be the focus of all people. The same way Jerusalem is set as the focal point of the world, so shall the church be on this earth (Psalm 48:1-2). The church of Jesus Christ is supposed to be preeminent in the world - the most influential system, the greatest structure. The church is supposed to rule and reign with Christ on the earth (Revelation 5:9-10). And indeed, this end time church will rule and reign with Christ. It will be a super imposing church, no institution or structure on earth has ever had such an imposing presence on the earth.

The gates of the church will always stand open, they will never be shut, day or night so that men may bring in the wealth of the nations (Isaiah 60:11). The church will be made rich supernaturally, she will be the ruler; a reigning church. Church will not only be a place for religion, but a place where different social issues are solved. It's going to be a place of refuge; men will run to the church to find help.

The church will be super-imposing in the end of times, it will have real power; spiritual and financial power. The power of the church will diffuse any other power in the world. Men will see the relevance of the church and the integrity of the church and they will run to the church with confidence.

This will be a church on fire, a church that knows its place on the earth, a church with no fear of men or persecution. A church that is strong in the Lord and in the power of His might – a church that is able to resist the enemy (Daniel 11:32).

The end time church will do exploits that have never been done throughout history. This church will be allowed to do things the church in past generations was never allowed to do. This church will be given the best wine - it will be allowed to taste the choice wine (John 2:10). New mantles and anointing will be given to this church. Spiritual operations and manifestations that have never been there before will be released. Wonderful things are awaiting the church and glorious things will be said about this church (Psalm 87:3).

It's going to be a church with solutions not problems, a church with answers not questions. It's going to be a beautiful church because the Owner Himself is beautiful. The church will be identical with its Owner.

This is where the judgments in the body of Christ are coming in. Those who are running the church incorrectly, bringing disrepute to it, the stumbling blocks, are going to be uprooted. The Master is uprooting bad seed in His church; those who defy and defile His church will be uprooted. He is planting good seeds in their place. Those who are willing to realign with the new arrangement of God, even the old, bad seed will be invited in. Those who persist in rebellion and sin will have no inheritance in this new church because darkness will not be permitted there. This is a church full of light and love, a church full of faith and joy and peace. It will reflect the values of the Owner.

This fallen church is going, a new one is rising from its ashes. This new church will be a triumphant church, one that reflects heaven's values.

The Lord

I will birth a new church, for I am making everything new in the last days. I am restructuring everything, I am uprooting what is rotten and establishing new things. This is My arrangement for the end time - building a church that cannot be defiled or overcome by the enemy. This current church is feeble and disgraceful; it can fall at the gentlest wind. The one I am bringing is an undefeatable church, well-structured and well founded. The enemy will shudder at the sight of this new church. He will be caught unawares for he is not expecting this.

Yes, I must build a new structure, a devil-proof structure. The feeblest in this church shall be like David, even the church itself shall be like God (Zechariah 12:8).

This church will be set on a conquering mission and it will conquer for Me, it will not cower. There is a new church coming from the ashes of the old. There is a new church forming right now, resurrecting from the valley of dry bones.

Many are dead in this church, but they will rise back to life, the dry, scattered bones will come back together, they will realign - they will receive flesh and skin and life. I will speak a word to these bones and they will hear. I will speak through My end time Ezekiels and the dry bones will live again, they will form a mighty army. What a great army! What a mighty army!

The dry, scattered church of Ezekiel's prophecy is coming to life. This is an army of the old breed ministers; compromised and lukewarm. They were once strong and mighty warriors, but an onslaught of the enemy ambushed them and slaughtered them. This army will rise up and it will be central to the end time fight against the enemy. I will revive them, I will raise them up again, I will give them skin, I will give them muscles, breath and strength.

I am restoring that which was lost, I lost many soldiers, but I will get them back again.

*Can spoils be taken from the strong, or captives be rescued from the fierce? Yes, captives will be taken from the fierce and spoils retrieved from the strong. Isaiah 49:24-26.

The new breed of sons that I am raising; the army in Joel's vision, will give a big blow to the kingdom of darkness and My captured soldiers (those in the valley of dry bones) will be let loose. They will fight again and win again. Great will be the day when they will arise and open their eyes to see how far they had fallen.

This raising of dry bones is the returning of the lost son, it will cause great joy in My house. I will hold a party in their honor; an outpouring of My Spirit, for My sons who were dead will be alive again.

My servant has spoken well; He has given perspective about the new church that I am raising. When Joel's army is manifested and Ezekiel's church of dry bones rises, My church will be untouchable.

Once again you have done well tonight, you have been in my presence and have received what was prepared for tonight, well done.

THE GREAT FALLING AWAY

At that time many will turn away from the faith and will hate and betray each other.

Matthew 24:10

I will open My mouth and speak the thoughts of the Father. I will tell you the plans that the Father has for the end time. I will tell you events that will take place before the culmination of all things.

As the world comes to an end, sin will be rampant. Sin will be viewed as good and good as evil. This started happening a long time ago, it's happening now but as you draw closer to the end, it will get worse and worse.

There will be terrible times in the last days, people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money (2 Timothy 3:1-5). When men love money, they love no one and nothing else and for that love of money they can do anything. They can sell anyone, they can betray anyone; they can kill, steal and destroy to get the money they want. In the last days, the devil will entice men with money and those who aren't dead to its love will follow him.

When men get in search for money, they fall into temptations and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. They end up piercing themselves with many griefs (1 Timothy 6:9-10).

The end time church will fall greatly as a result of its love for money. This is why men must be warned about the dangers of seeking things of this life. Men must be taught to seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness and the things they need will be given to them as well (Mathew 6:33). Man was never created to seek things of this life, he was created to seek God. When a man confines himself to the pursuit of God, things of this world will get confined to the pursuit of that man.

Love is the law on which the kingdom operates, when the law of love is violated, sin is automatically birthed, and that sin births more and more sins leading to death. Man is not supposed to love money but God, it is money which is supposed to love man.

When men pursue things, they become adamant, they curse God, they worship themselves and crown what they have found in their quest as god. That's why man must always get things from God and in His way (John 3:27). The man who gets things from God and in His way, will always honor God and serve Him with His substance.

When men begin to seek things, they become self-centered, they lose focus of other people's needs, they lose focus of God. Such men can get in anyone's way, they can do anything to get what they want. Men are entangled in many webs of evil because of the love of money.

The great falling away will root from the love of money which is the root of all evil (1 Timothy 6:10). Men will totally shift their love from God to money and things of this world and every evil will root from that. When people focus on this earth, when they get attracted to things of this life, they become Sodom.

Even the church today has gone astray; both the shepherds and the sheep are in search of money and things of this world. The church must have one love and the church must focus on that love. No one can serve two masters (Mathew 6:24).

Multitudes will fall away; multitudes will forget their God. Multitudes will backslide. This will be like the days of Noah. To a degree, the world is already in that state, but it has not reached a place where a flood can be justified. The weight of sin has not reached that place, but soon it will reach that place and judgment will be justified.

The love of many people will grow cold (Matthew 24:12), the fear of God will disappear. This will bring sin revival in the world. People will be living as if there is no God; they will neither honor Him nor love Him.

The Lord

If My church can arise to this reality. If My church can return now, what is coming can be avoided. Men will be butchered in broad daylight, thievery will be everywhere, stabbings, rape cases will be multiplied many times over. What looks like sin now, will be multiplied many times over. Evil men will be upheld, the good will be scorned and persecuted. This will make Sodom's sin look like child's play, it will make Noah's time look like nothing.

There will be new sins on the scene. Men will sit on the drawing table and come up with ideas for new sins, they will literary device sins. They will sell sins, publicize sins and advertise sins. And many will buy the sins, for the consciousness of many will be seared as with a hot iron (1 Timothy 4:1-4). Sin will increase. Men will parade sin like Sodom, they will display it like Gomorrah (Isaiah 3:9). This will be an apostate church.

There will be every kind of perversion. Individuals, organizations and governments will fashion sin. Men will display sin in public. Sin will not be hidden anymore. Those who do good will be considered as evil, those who do evil will be called good (Isaiah 5:20). Perilous times are coming on the face of the earth, where sin is going to reign in that season and good and righteousness will disappear.

As you have observed, these things have already started happening, the dread of sin and the shame of sin is slowly disappearing from the hearts of men. Men are turning into beasts, there is no respect for human life, they are not ashamed to display sin, but this will become worse in the end. Those who sin will continue to sin, they will not listen to rebuke, they will not heed correction. They will continue on the way they have taken.

The great falling away has not yet happened. Sin must be measured and when it reaches its full measure, judgment will be due. The sin of this generation has not reached that point. But very soon, the quantity of sin will reach that level. People will be carousing in broad daylight, in public squares, during public events.

Enoch

People will forget their God. They will not take rebuke, instead, they will stray further instead of drawing nigh. But the One who made them will not get weary of them. The love of the Father will continue pursuing mankind to restore mankind to Himself, and men will return, and the Father will be overjoyed.

Sin will abound in the end time. The Name of our God, His church and the sacred things of God will be profaned and defiled. There will be no fear of God at all. Even now, there is no fear of God. But what is coming later is despicable. The fear of God will totally disappear; men will not consider God as anything. They will attribute their existence to science and their intellect. Sin will abound, it will triumph. For a season darkness will triumph over light and the devil will rejoice, he will say to Himself, "My victory is finally here." He will rejoice at the level of sin in the world, he will be glad that he is winning.

The Lord

The church is dying little by little. It's getting into apostasy, and the people I have assigned to the churches are not on the lookout. They themselves have shifted their focus from Me to the world.

My church is getting into a place of self-destruction, it's on its way to apostasy. The deviation from My word, the shift of focus to worldly things, derailment from kingdom practices - all these are draining My life and My love from My church. My love is the life of the church. When there is no love, the church cannot live but die.

Mammon is a god; he loves to be worshiped. So, the devil will do anything to provide money to men, so men can worship him by worshiping mammon.

In the end times, sin will be upheld while righteousness will be cast away like a menstrual cloth. People will eat sin, they will drink sin, they will rejoice at sin. Many believers will fall and unbelievers will get deeper into sin. This will be called the Great Falling Away because men will fall in great numbers and they will fall into many, great sins.

Men will fall into various kinds of sin and the church will be in the forefront of that move. These things will put many into graves of spiritual death. Many will lay in spiritual tombs. There will be an enormous graveyard called the Valley of Dry Bones. Many in the church throughout the world will be dead, they will be dry.

Enoch

Instead of bringing a flood like in Noah's time, He will pour on them the water of refreshing. Instead of raining Sulphur on them like He did with Sodom and Gomorrah, He will purge them with the fire of the Holy Spirit. At that time, the Lord will come in His power, with the Spirit of holiness and many will be cleansed. There will be a renewal, a rebirth of the people of God. They will return to the Father, to the lost love.

He will not let His people die in sin, He will rescue them. The Lord will come with an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Those who were dead in sin will receive the life of God. The Lord will never be defeated by the enemy. Satan may think he has it, he may think he has won, but his victories are temporary.

The people will become holy, the Lord will sanctify them, He will cleanse them and make them new by His spirit. By His blood He bought them, and by His spirit He will revive them, making them alive again. Men will be vomited out from sin; they were in deep darkness but by His mercy, He will take away the veils that covered them and the scrod that engulfs them will be destroyed (Isaiah 25:7). He will cause them to see the light, they will repent, they will return.

The Lord

Yes, I will breath My breath on those bones and they will live again. They will have life again and they will serve Me again. This is a battle, a war for the souls of men – My people. I will not allow them to go to hell. I will have mercy on them, I will make My grace available to them, I will give them another chance to serve Me. Unlike in the days of Noah, I will bring resurrection, revival; worldwide revival, the entire Valley of Dry Bones will live again.

THE BATON OF SPIRITUAL PRE-EMINENCE

And without faith it's impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

Hebrews 11:6

You have been tasked with the same task as that of Noah, that of preparing the souls of men for the coming flood, that of warning them and building an ark; a vessel through which those who align with the Father can escape from. Your task is to warn humanity about the impending events on the world scene. Your task is to warn them about the coming perilous times.

So, just as it was with Noah, that he preached the message but they did not believe; expect the same response from men, for many will not believe your message. So, when the flood came they perished, because they had given a deaf ear to Noah's message. Only Noah and his family survived the flood (Genesis 7:23). It shall be the same in the end time, those who will believe the message are your family, they will enter the ark and escape the flood with you.

Those who will not believe but choose to persist in evil, those who will give a deaf ear and a blind eye to your message will perish. As for you, never get weary of speaking on the Lord's behalf. Speak whatever He has spoken. You will be a wise and faithful servant if you present to the people everything the Father has said. Whether they listen or fail to listen is not your problem. It is only when you withhold information due to the fear of men, fear of opposition or persecution, that the people's blood will be on your head (Ezekiel 2, 3, and 33).

So, the things I have been saying are not meant for you only, they are meant for the body.

And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrusted to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others. 2 Timothy 2:2.

You are doing well because you are sharing these messages with those around you. But make sure that more people have access to what heaven is saying. You are a portal; heaven's portal on earth. The Lord has opened you up as a portal through which heaven's messages will pass through to enter earth.

Yesterday, you received the baton of spiritual pre-eminence, because of that baton, there will now be more messages and revelations given to you. The Lord has vetted you and qualified you for He has found you worthy to be a portal through which heaven can speak to earth. The Father will speak things through you; even things the world has never heard before. He wills to show you things the world will not believe.

You have opened new doors for the earth. The earth will begin to receive new things through the doors you have opened. You have opened these doors through your obedience and alignment with the Father. You do not realize what you have done for the earth; the things you have achieved for earth. The earth will forever be grateful for your contribution.

There are things the earth couldn't have accessed, there are things the earth couldn't have known or enjoyed if you had not gone ahead and did well on their behalf. The sacrifice you have made in the kingdom, your alignment with the Father and the obedience you have shown, has opened doors, enabling man to enjoy things in the kingdom, know things that could have been unknown and hear things that couldn't have been heard.

If you continue on the path you have taken, if you do not slow down, if you do not back down, if you continue moving on without fear or doubt, more will be given to you for the sake of the earth. Many more things will go through your portal into the earth. The earth will receive much, much more blessings through your portal.

You are heaven's delight; heaven rejoices over you because you rejoice in heaven. Heaven is glad to have you on the earth. The Father is pleased to have a son like the pattern Son. You will go far and accomplish much on the earth as long as you keep the stand you have taken; as long you don't get weary (Galatians 6:9).

You have taken the right path, you are doing the right thing, you are teaching the right messages. These messages will make a big impact in the world. You have a small group now, but because you are faithful to this small group, the Lord will increase your numbers. He will give you more people, He will entrust you with so many people so that you can invest in them what the Father has invested in you. He will add more so that you can teach them what the Father has taught you and give them the light heaven has given you.

Those He sends to you will become sons like you and heaven's joy will be multiplied. Heaven is looking for sons; these are crucial to the Lord's end time agenda. You are a son, as a son, you are required to make other sons; sons like yourself, because these sons will be like the Master, because you have become like Him. That's heaven's plan – that's heaven's pattern.

Continue on, move on, don't slow down and don't become lazy. Be strong, be vigilant, continue moving forward. There is so much ahead, there are many things you can win for the earth, there are still many doors you can open for the earth.

I am a witness to your triumph in the Spirit, I am cheering you on.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Hebrews 12:1

That's why I am here to help you move forward. The Father has shown me the places you are supposed to reach in the Spirit, and you will reach them if you keep holding on, if you keep believing, if you continue on the path of love and all the other kingdom principles given to you by the Father.

The Father loves you. He wants you to win, win and win. The Father has made you a victor, a winner, He has made you more than a conqueror (Romans 8:37). He has made you strong, stouthearted and firm. He has placed you on a smooth path (Isaiah 26:7). He has faith in you, He trusts in you and believes in you. He has great hopes in you, that you will birth that which He wants you to birth on the earth; and you will birth it.

Heaven is with you, cheering you on, backing you up and helping you (Hebrews 12:1). No power of darkness will be able to overcome you; you are undefeatable. You will move forward. You will move on. You will conquer territories for the King. Assignments that other men have failed to accomplish, you will do them. Heaven will have joy and victory because your victories are heaven's victories.

You need not be afraid of any man. You need not to doubt the voice of the Father. The Father is very close to your heart. He speaks to you. Never confuse yourself by doubting His voice, He speaks to you, He has always spoken to you and He will continue speaking to you.

The time has come for your manifestation as a son. Soon, very soon, you shall begin manifesting son-ship, you will amaze and confound many (Roman 8:18-19). Many will take offence as heaven rejoices. Many will say evil things against you. They will paint your face wrongly. But never forget, you are a son of love and you are working under the banner of love, don't pay evil for evil, never revenge (1 Peter 3:9). Learn from the Master, the way He handled His persecution.

When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. 1 Peter 2:23

He has taught you about this Himself; remember the things He taught you. If you must win and triumph, if you must continue bringing joy to heaven, always and only look forward, never let the voices of men distract you. Persecution is a voice of distraction.

Persecution will take you down if you handle it wrongly. If you take it rightly, it will take you up. If you persevere through persecution you are blessed and many will be your rewards in heaven even upon the face of the earth.

*Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you. Matthew 5:10-12.

You must expect persecution (2 Timothy 3:12). You must expect opposition. You must expect to be misunderstood, hated, and strongly opposed. You must expect people to refuse your messages, to call you names, to call you demon possessed, to spit on you. But as a son of God that has been conformed into the image of the Lord, you cannot and you must not pay evil for evil. This will take your focus off the ministry, off the assignment.

Those who oppose and persecute you are there for a purpose; to take you off your course, to take you off the path and to slow you down. Don't let them. Don't let them win. You must always win over hate, love always wins (1 Corinthians 13:8).

Hold on to love and you will hold on to the victories the Father has in store for you. Great is your inheritance on earth! Great is your inheritance in heaven!

You will enter the realms of prosperity that have never been entered on the earth. Many will marvel at the level of your prosperity. Do not let anyone or anything cause you to lose your earthly rewards, even your heavenly ones. Continue moving by faith with boldness and courage knowing that heaven is behind you and that God Himself is with you; giving you the instructions, guiding you, protecting you and helping you.

As you begin manifesting as a son, the portals of hell will open to fight against you. But the gates of hell shall not prevail against you because you are representing the church. The gates of hell cannot overcome the church; the Lord will not let them (Matthew 16:18). You must do the Father's will and finish His work (John 4:34). You must bring glory to the Father by completing the work the Father has given you (John 17:4).

You are doing well, you are doing right and you will be helped. The Father knows your motives. You are sold out to Him, He knows that. These are the things that have attracted the Father to bless you this much.

This is a season of your manifestation as a son of God (Romans 8:19). Eyes of men will be centered on you. People will be looking for you, talking about you, do not let this distract you from the assignment. Move with the vision with precision, with passion, and clarity of mind.

There are material things coming your way, don't let them distract you. Don't let them win you over. They are coming because the Lord knows you are dead to them. The Lord has vouched and heaven has witnessed your death to earthly things (Galatians 2:20). This is what has attracted prosperity to you. So, don't let prosperity turn you back to the place where you begin to seek it. As long as you keep seeking after the Lord, things will keep seeking after you, forever. This is the Father's arrangement; that those who pursue Him must be pursued by prosperity (Matthew 6:33).

Do not forget this. Many have forgotten this and so they have pierced themselves with many sorrows (1 Timothy 6:10). They have lost the love and the ministry. Some have lost their rewards and even their place in eternity. They failed to maintain their stand at the sight of prosperity, glory, riches and honor. Always remember that earthly riches are temporary, they are not real. What's real is what's inside, what's real is what is awaiting you on the other side (Matthew 6:19-21).

If you continue focusing on heavenly rewards, the earthly ones will not trap you and you will finish well and receive your beautiful inheritance in eternity. There you will enter the realms of glory that are real and permanent, you will rule and reign with Christ as a king forever and ever (Revelation 2:5). If you overcome, you will sit on His throne just as He overcame and sat with His Father on His throne (Revelation 3:21). The Father loves you, He doesn't want to lose you the way He has lost many of His sons to the love of things of this world.

In My time, I had the baton of spiritual pre-eminence, in your time, you have the baton. You are above all men as far as spiritual matters are concerned. You are the chief among men in the spirit. It has pleased the Lord to give you the baton. You can have it till the last day of your earthly life or you can lose it through carelessness and unfaithfulness, if you lose your focus. But if you keep your focus on the Father you will keep it, it will be yours until the day you go into glory. This is the Father's perfect will that the baton be given to another at their passing. But many batons have been taken away because those who had them had shifted; they had left their first love or backslid by shifting to wrong motives.

It will not be so with you, you will be careful, you will not allow the baton to make you proud, it will cause you to be humbler; the humblest of sons.

That baton of spiritual pre-eminence is the greatest honor in the kingdom. It's the greatest spiritual asset a man can have on the earth. Look after it with jealousy, guide it passionately, it will benefit men on the earth.

You are no longer living for you, you are living for the world. You are no longer here for you but for the world. Your very life belongs to the world. You can give it to the world (Ephesians 5:2). The Master had the baton in His time, the souls of men depended on His spiritual place in the kingdom. He gave His life for the world because He was living for the world (John 3:16). You will do well to take care of this baton, you will do well to keep it safe.

You have received the baton after doing better than the one who preceded you, the one who succeeds you must do better than you. This is how it has always worked throughout generations, the successor to the baton must outdo the predecessor.

So, the baton is in your hands, the next person to have it must be higher in spirit than you, that too is your responsibility. You must mentor men who can take that baton, the same way Elijah mentored Elisha to take his baton.

Who is like the Lord our God? A God of faithfulness and love! A Rewarder of them that diligently seek Him (Hebrews 11:6)! You have sought hard after Him for years, now it is payday. It's time for the Father to reward you for seeking Him diligently.

Expect more from His generous hands and gracious heart. Expect more and more surprises from his chambers that are full of good and from His right hand that has eternal pleasures (Psalm 16:11). Expect to get deeper and deeper into spiritual things. There is so much to be shown, so much to embrace, so much to enjoy and to be taught. It's all yours. It's all yours. Enjoy it, enjoy it in the Name of the Lord.

This is what I had for you tonight. I wanted to give perspective about who you are in the kingdom and what you have become since yesterday when you received that baton. You have become great, the expectation of all the earth, the joy of all heaven, the Father's favorite, His very heartbeat.

This is a great privilege, a very great honor. Use it wisely, many have cried for this great honor, many pray over this but they never get it. You have it. Bless the Lord, praise Him forever more for what He has done for you and for the earth.

The Lord

Remember where you are coming from. Remember what you have done in My presence. Remember how we have walked together till now and keep this in your mind, so that you can always remember how far we have come in this journey.

It hasn't been easy; you have walked through many challenges, and encountered many trials, you have had many doubts. I have led you from that place to this place. I have led your feet to this place in My righteousness.

Never forget where you are coming from. Israel forgot where they had come from - the pain of Egypt. Because they did not remember, they soon forgot their slavery, they were never grateful for their deliverance and so, they sought to return to Egypt (Psalm 106:13-15, Psalm 103:2). If a man cannot remember the past, he cannot go into the future. When a man forgets where he is coming from, he cannot appreciate where he is.

When you reach the promised land, while forgetting your past, you cannot appreciate the new land. So, always remember where you are coming from. Remembering where you are coming from will keep you safe where you are and where you are going.

I have drawn you with the cords of My love (Hosea 11:4). I have taught you many things. I have taken you this far, I am taking you further (1 Samuel 7:12). As I am taking you further, I will continue teaching you and showing you the steps to be taken. You will be wise to take every step I show you.

From today onwards, your walk will be different, because your status is now different. Now because your spiritual status has changed, much change will come; roundabout change. Your financial status is changing. Do not change who you are because of this change. Be who you were, do not waiver, continue being this son that I know. Continue being this son who obeys Me and seeks My face always. Continue being this son who aligns with Me, this son who loves Me and spends time in My presence. Continue being this and I will be glad.

I have lost sons after crossing this line, I have lost many sons after translating their spiritual riches into physical treasure. I have lost many sons, many of them. I don't want to lose you. Am saying these things with a heart of passion. Please, remember where you have come from, the teachings I have given you, remember My ways. Don't just remember them, but teach them to My people because many of them will be allowed to walk in the walk you have walked. Even now there are many walking in your path but keep encouraging them, teaching them, showing them that this is the way I make for those that I am taking far. The longer the trip, the more the transport fare, the higher the building, the deeper the foundation.

I have been planting an oak tree. You are that oak. I want to plant many oaks in My church because all My ‘end time sons’ will be oak trees. They must know My ways. They must understand My methods; they must know Rome was never built in a day. It takes time to purge, to cleanse, to purify so that the final product can be like Me. It’s not that I am a slow Teacher, but the nature of the earth makes it difficult for men to be broken. I break My soldiers like they break horses. It takes a long time to break a horse and make it submissive enough for riding.

I want us to continue walking together the way we have been walking. If you put your eyes on what you have, you will lose focus on Me. It’s a dangerous thing to lose focus of Me. Always look to Me, don’t look at the things I will give you. I will give you plenty of things, earthly things. But don’t allow them to steal your love for Me. Don’t allow them to take My place. They can never take My place; they can never give you love, peace and joy. Love, peace and joy come from Me and not from the things I give. Without Me, the things I give mean nothing, they cannot satisfy. But the same things if preserved with this understanding will give you so much on the earth.

Your life is changing drastically. I have been saying this over and over again. I was preparing you for what was coming. Now it is here. The treasures of this life are coming; the money, the cars, the houses, the travels, the fame, the glory, the honor, they are here. Now is time to prove that you have been made, that you have been made like unto Paul, to abound whether in plenty or in scarcity (Philippians 4:12-13).

This is what I have been doing in your life. I allowed you to be debased, to go through lack, to have financial hiccups; to beg and borrow. I was building you up, I was molding you and making you so you can handle the plenty, the glory that is coming. I was doing it so that when you get into Canaan, you may never forget that there are people still suffering in Egyptian slavery and that others are still wandering in the wilderness. Remember them that are still back there and help them to get where you are, where you are going and even beyond where you are going.

I love you. I am passionate for you. You are a rare son, a rare jewel, a woman with a soft heart, a heart full of love for the Father. It will hurt My heart; it will break My heart to lose you, after walking this long together, it will be painful for Me to lose you.

THE RAPTURE – PREPARING THE ARK

So, then dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him.

2 Peter 3:14.

Events that will unfold on the earth will confound many. Life will not be as you know it. After the rapture, life will be unbearable for those who will remain - they will experience a measure of hell on earth.

When the Lord comes for His church, it will mark the close of a chapter and the beginning of the very last chapter of earthly life. At that time, Satan's power will be increased, he will be in control of the earth making it an unbearable place to live. The earth is bearable to live in now because the children of God are still here. It is the presence of the church on the earth that makes it comfortable - even for unbelievers.

The day believers leave the earth is the day men will know the relevance of the church on the earth. Even in its fallen state, the church's existence on earth is making all the difference; keeping the sanity. After the church leaves, hell will break loose. Life will not be normal, it will cease to be what it is, it will be a different thing altogether.

God's will is that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth - to the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ, so that at His coming, everyone can leave the earth with Him. But because of the arrogance of men, even some of those who are called believers will be left behind. The earth will turn ugly and those believers who will be left behind will live to regret having missed the rapture.

People speak about the rapture as if it was a joke, they make it sound funny when talking about those who will be left behind, but the reality of being left behind is far from funny. It can be equaled to the reality of being swept away by the flood waters of Noah.

It will not be easy to survive the evil laws of the One World Government, the anti-Christ and the Great Tribulation. The light that is there now is because of the church, when the church goes, it will be chaotic, there will be darkness and death everywhere; the earth will not be pretty, but ugly, miserable and unenjoyable.

It is the will of the Father that no one should perish, that none should be left behind, but sadly many will be left behind.

Rapture Requirements – Building the Personal Ark

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man (Matthew 24:37).

Since at the coming of the Son of man it will be as it was in the days of Noah, the preparations for His coming are also supposed to be the same as those of the preparation of the flood. The events around the flood were a type of events to be expected around and during the rapture.

1. Noah was instructed to make his own ark – the believer must build his own life in Christ.

“So God said to Noah, ‘I am going to put an end to all people, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. I am surely going to destroy both them and the earth. So make yourself an ark of cypress wood;” Genesis 6:13-14.

In keeping with this instruction, Noah began to build that ark – his own ark -with his own hands. This is a believer being instructed to build his own life in Christ in readiness for the rapture. Like Noah, the believer must continue to work out his own salvation with fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12). He must intentionally and actively build himself up.

“But you, dear friends, build yourselves up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit. Keep yourselves in God’s love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life.” Jude 1:20-21.

Like Noah the believer must heed the Lord’s instruction and begin to personally build his life in Christ so he can be rooted and grounded in Him, (Colossians 2:6, Romans 8:29, Philippians 2:12). By doing so, he will be making himself an ark through which he will escape the flood of the end time perils. Just as it could have been impossible for Noah to make it through the flood without an ark, so shall it be - men will not make rapture without spiritual preparation.

What will make it possible for men to be changed on that day, are the spiritual changes they have already made in their lives. Only those who have built themselves up and have been conformed into His likeness are the ones to be translated (Romans 8:29). The life of the believer must match that of the Lord Jesus Christ, becoming like Him in every way.

And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his likeness with ever increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is Spirit. 2 Corinthians 3:18.

As a man walks faithfully with the Lord, by the standards He set, as he obeys Him, he is assembling parts of his ark, he is building his own ark which will enable him to make rapture.

2. Noah abided by the specific details of building the ark (Genesis 6:14-16) – the believer must abide by the Lord's instructions for building his life

Noah was not only instructed to build himself an ark, he was also given exact instructions on how to build it; the exact standards, materials, measurements, dimensions and pattern.

And, Noah did everything just as God commanded him (Genesis 6:2).

In the same way, the Lord has given the believer specific instructions on how to build his life. Like Noah every believer must endeavor to use no other requirements except those given by the Lord to build his life (1 Corinthians 3:10-17). The believer must be grounded in the study of the word (Joshua 1:8) and live his life in alignment with the word. He must put off his old self and be made new in the attitude of his mind and put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness (Ephesians 4:22-24).

The believer must closely follow the life of the Lord Jesus Christ, and be molded into that pattern for He is the only acceptable pattern from which all men must build their arks (Hebrews 12:2).

*A voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him. Luke 9:35.

By adopting the ways of this world, living by its standards and patterns man defaults his chances for the rapture.

*Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God – this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the patterns of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to taste and approve what God’s will is – his good, pleasing and perfect will. Romans 12:1-2.

Remember, if Noah had come up with his own ark design, materials and dimensions, the results could have been catastrophic. The ark couldn’t have made it through the flood waters.

3. Noah’s ark was complete before the flood – your life must be complete in Christ before rapture

“We proclaim Him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.”

Colossians 1:28

The ark was finalized to its last detail, before Noah’s family went inside it; the rain and flood came only after this. This is the same with the rapture, in order to be taken, the believer must mature in Christ just like Noah’s ark was finalized (mature and perfect) before the flood. At the coming of the Lord, only those who are sanctified; spirit, soul and body are the ones to be taken.

May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Thessalonians 5:23.

If one's ark is not completed, it will be impossible to go because an incomplete ark cannot make it above floodwaters. Men will not make the rapture if their arks are not thoroughly built just as Noah could not board an unfinished ark. An incomplete machine cannot function well - an immature Christian equals an incomplete ark unable to float about the floodwaters.

If a man's life does not match the life of Christ, that man's life is not complete – he is not perfect in Christ. That man's ark is not finalized.

4. Building the corporate ark

Every believer is an individual temple of the Holy Spirit and all members together form one temple (1 Corinthians 12:12). While every believer is responsible for making his own ark, the entire body of Christ must also prepare its own ark – a cooperate ark. The body as an entity must be built up, until it reaches maturity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and becomes mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. This is the kind of church the Lord is coming for. All individual believers who have matured in Him will together form the corporate ark through which the entire church will board on its way to heaven on the day of rapture.

5. Noah (as a leader) made his own ark and also that of his family – Genesis 6:1

“... to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. Ephesians 4:12-13.

The minister of the gospel must build the church so that the Lord can find a ready, glorified, and sanctified church. Like Noah, he has been charged to build an ark through which the church will escape from the flood of the great tribulation.

Like Paul, the minister must labor until Christ is formed in the sheep (Galatians 3:19). He must make sure that the entire body is united in faith and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. He must strive to build and mature the body so that at His coming it can be a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless (Ephesians 5:25-27).

In His grace, the Lord through His word and His Spirit, has given the minister of the Gospel the exact design, dimensions and materials by which the church must be built. It is wisdom for ministers to follow the example of Noah; that of building using no other materials, no other measurements, no other patterns except the ones given by the Chief Architect (1 Corinthians 3:10-11).

The Lord as a Wise Architect, gave Noah the specifics for building the ark. He did this with a picture of the nature of the flood in mind. The same Lord, through His word has given His shepherds specific details for building the church considering the nature of the rapture and the coming flood.

6. Not all believers will make rapture

Two men will be in the field; one will be taken, and the other left. Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left. Matthew 24:40-41.

The Lord is coming for a particular kind of people. He is not coming for any church, but a sanctified church, a glorified church, one without spot or wrinkle. He is coming for those wearing white, untainted robes. He is coming for a bride who is ready to meet the Bridegroom; confident and unashamed (1 John 4:17). No Bridegroom comes for a bride who is in a stained wedding dress, unkempt hair, unpleasant smell. This kind of bride is shameful and displeasing to Him. The bride herself will have no confidence meeting the Groom. Every bridegroom expects his bride to be well prepared, clean and beautiful.

In the Parable of the Ten Virgins (Matthew 25), when the bridegroom came, only five virgins made it for the wedding banquet. These were the ones ready for the groom. The foolish virgins were left behind; the door shut before their eyes. These and the groom knew each other, they were in fact invited to the wedding. But they were left behind because they didn't meet the requirements of the event. These are a type of believers who know the Lord, their names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life, but they haven't met the rapture requirements.

7. Keep watch, nobody knows the day or the hour

"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day of the hour." Matthew 25:15.

There is a day in the heart of God, known only by Him, it will come as a surprise, it will happen so quickly, there will be no time to repent, no time to prepare, no time to go and buy extra oil. If the oil is gone, you will be left behind, if part of your ark is incomplete, there will be no time to complete it.

It is wisdom to keep preparing for His coming, so that when He comes, your ark can be ready and able to swim above the waters. Announcements for His coming have been made for generations, warning men to be alert, to be ready at all times, that men must always look up, always anticipating the return of Him who died and rose again and lives forever. Men must always live for Him, always expecting His return, living each day as if it was that day, even crying for His return. Men who live like this cannot miss the rapture.

*He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus. Revelation 22:20.

It is sad that the modern-day church is asleep. The early church heard these same messages and embraced the urgency therein, they believed that the coming of the Lord was imminent and they lived in that reality. Why were they able to do this? Because that church was revived, it was alive to God and not rooted in this life. They were here physically but their hearts were in heaven; they were always looking up.

This church's generation is lost in that area; living only for the now and only for this world. There is no regard for heaven, and rapture sounds like fiction.

The Father's heart is with humanity. He loved humanity from eternity. He loves man in a way that man cannot understand. He knows the events that will take place on the earth when the church leaves. He doesn't want His people to suffer with the rest of the world. He has prepared a rescue program for the saints.

8. The Aftermath of the Rapture

As it was in the aftermath of the resurrection of the Lord, so shall it be after rapture. There were many lies, false reports and make-up stories. Some were even paid to lie about what had happened (Matthew 28:11-15). After rapture, men will be inspired and sponsored by the enemy to do the same. The event will be given different names, it will be called different things - an alien abduction, a plague, scientist error etc. Men will be silenced from speaking the truth. The enemy will suppress the truth so that those who are left behind can remain in the dark.

Educate men about the rapture, teach them the truth so that they cannot be blinded by lies. Men must know that there is nothing worth in this life than their life in Him, that's where their safety is.

The Lord

Yes, the culmination of all things is at hand (1 Peter 4:7). The rapture is coming at a time nobody knows for it is the glory of God to conceal a matter (Proverbs 25:2). The day and hour of the rapture has been concealed, but every believer must know that it is coming, that it is coming soon and that it is inevitable. This will affect everyone and everything on earth.

It is coming like a thief in the night, so, it is wisdom for men to be ready at all times. The instruction to be ready is a motivation for men to always live right, not only for the sake of the rapture, but also for the sake of their own good during this earthly life.

Men must always live on earth with the consciousness of the rapture, that way they will always be ready for it. Men must be willing to live for the Lord and not for themselves or other men or even things of this world (1 Peter 4:2, Matthew 6:33, Colossians 3:23).

Living for the Lord will automatically make them ready. Those who always look up and live in the pursuit of My kingdom and My righteousness have nothing to worry about, they are building themselves up and so their arks will be ready. Those who live for themselves, have neglected the building of their arks.

I am only coming for those whose arks are finalized for they are the ones qualified to meet the Bridegroom. The Bridegroom is radiant and beautiful; He is coming for a bride that matches His radiance (Ephesians 5:27).

Noah built the ark for himself and also for the people. Like Noah and like the old covenant priests who offered sacrifices for themselves and also for the people, the work of the minister of the gospel is to build his own ark and that of the entire body as a corporate entity.

CHAPTER 15

THE MYSTERY OF A WOMAN IN A BASKET

I asked, "What is it?" he replied, "It is a measuring basket." And he added, "This is the iniquity of the people throughout the land."

Then the cover of the lead was raised, and there in the basket sat a woman! He said, "This is wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and pushed the lead cover down over its mouth.

Then I looked up – and there before me were two women, with the wind in their wings! They had wings like that of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between heaven and earth.

"Where are they taking the basket?" I asked the angel who was speaking to me. He replied, "To the country of Babylon to build a house for it. When it is ready, the basket will be set there in its place."

Zechariah 5:5-11.

A seal is coming off tonight. Listen well, listen accurately so you cannot miss anything; every word, every phrase, every sentence that I say is important. The Father is pleased to unravel the Mystery of the Woman in a Basket.

The Mystery of a Woman in a Basket is the mystery of the spirit of Jezebel. That woman in that basket was Jezebel – Ahab's wife. Jezebel was not a person, she was a spirit employed by hell to confuse Ahab and provoke Israel to sin. She was an evil power that caused the fall of Ahab. Jezebel is a murderous, adulterous and fornicating spirit.

The land where the fullness of that sin was taken to was the country of Babylonia which in modern times is represented by the United States of America. The full sin of the whole land of Israel was taken there and has been there till now. It's almost time for the basket to be set in its place. When that basket is set in its place, and the cover of the lead is taken off, the fullness of sin will be released from that basket into the whole land. Then, the sin of the land of America will be multiplied many times over, it will reach its full limit and a time for judgment for the land will be due.

The basket of sin was taken to the ancient Babylon because whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have an abundance. So, the fullness of sin was given to her who already had it.

For now, sin has not reached its maturity in America because the house for the basket has not yet been made ready and the lead has not been lifted. When the lead is taken off, America's sin will mature and her current sin will look like nothing; this will be a level of sin too much to behold. And because of this, the anger of the Lord will burn against the land in judgment.

This mystery should be a reminder that it was a woman who destroyed Ahab and that it was also a woman, with the spirit of Jezebel who destroyed John the Baptist. The spirit of Jezebel is now in a woman in America for America is in possession of that basket full of sin.

Right now, there is a woman in America harboring the spirit of Jezebel and through that spirit, she will destroy America. Just as Jezebel destroyed Israel, just as she destroyed the status quo of the land; this woman will destroy the status quo of the United States of America. She will change the laws, she will bring in confusion and conflict within the operating systems of the land. She will bring so much pain. She will change things in an evil way. It will not be this woman doing this, it will be the spirit of Jezebel doing it through her - enforcing her decisions and actions.

The spirit in this woman is not yet activated. But soon she will come out into the open, she may have a different name, but the spirit behind her is Jezebel. She will confuse the nation; she will take the nation on its way to destruction. America will take the way of self-destruction through her.

She will negatively change things in the land. Whatever America stood for will be destroyed. Whatever made America great will be made small. She will do this to pave way for the Beast from the Sea so he can come in and begin operating. In Israel, Jezebel cleared the way for Ahab to possess Naboth's vineyard (1 Kings 21:1-16). She killed John the Baptist to make way for Herod's untampered rule (Matthew 14). This woman's agenda is the same.

This woman will do evil things in the land to pave the way for her master, the Beast from the Sea. Jezebel will come back into full manifestation, her spirit never dies, she just enters men throughout history.

Right now, she doesn't know this, since the spirit has not been activated yet, but very soon, she will be activated and people will know her for who she really is. Her true identity is hidden for now, but she was prepared by the kingdom of darkness to be activated at an appointed time.

This woman will rule over America. Her rule will only be centered to destroy the land because the spirit of Jezebel is only there to kill, steal and destroy. She will destroy whatever she finds there; even democracy.

After her term of office, everything in the land will be upside down. The chaos caused by Jezebel will greatly affect other nations too. Many nations will be in tumult; politically and economically. The Beast from the Sea will take advantage of this and so, he will bring his plans on the table; plans to restructure the nation and to restructure the messy world created by Jezebel. One plan will lead to another right into the introduction of the One World Government. The purpose of this government will be to trap the entire world under the control of the devil.

The Beast from the Sea is the one who initiated this woman, he groomed her and is still grooming her, putting his sinister plans into her. She will start her term of office at a seemingly good note, she will rule smoothly at the beginning, but later, little by little, she will begin to reveal her true identity. She will be fierce, angry, unapproachable and she will not take any advice. The spirit in her wants to be on top, she wants to be in total control. So, she will control the nation, those with her and those around her. The agenda of hell will be fulfilled through her.

Everything will happen according to the plan of the enemy. The Lord has allowed these things to happen. The Lord will not be caught by surprise. He is always ahead of the enemy.

This woman's rule over the land will be the introduction to the fall of the United States and varied catastrophes in the nations of the world. Her reign will bring the kind of change that has never happened in the history of the land. “She will make America weak and small,” that’s her agenda. This will give credence to the Beast from the Sea to come in and say, “Let’s make America strong and big again.” And that will be a lie; a trap to destroy and control the whole world, so that one man can rule the whole world under the banner of darkness.

ALL ISRAEL WILL BE SAVED

I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of gentiles has come in. And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob. And this is my covenant with them when I take away their sins.

As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies on your account; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs, for God's gifts and his call are irrevocable.

Romans 11:25-27.

Spiritual things can only be discerned by those who have the Spirit (1 Corinthians 2:14-15). The things I am sharing with you can only be discerned by those who are spiritual. Those who are in the world, those who live by the flesh will not discern or understand these things and so they will accept them. Those who live by the Spirit even to a smaller degree, will hear this and hear the sound of heaven - they will receive it, they will embrace it and they will begin to walk in the light of these revelations. Do not worry about those who will not believe, continue speaking on the Lord's behalf. You are a witness to these things, your job is to witness to the people, whether they believe or not is not your problem.

These things may sound impossible, they may sound undoable and unrealistic, but these are spiritual realities, and soon they will become physical realities. Men see and experience things in the spirit before they experience them in the physical. The Lord wants men to be on top of things. He wants His people to know His good plans for them and also the evil plans of the enemy in this season.

Today we will venture into another prophetic insight concerning Israel. It has pleased the Father to unravel the prophecy given to Isaiah at the time of his commissioning.

“Go and tell this people: Be ever hearing, but never understanding; be ever seeing, but never perceiving. Make the heart of these people calloused; make their eyes dull and close their eyes. Otherwise, they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed.” Isaiah 6:8-13

This prophecy came as God’s judgment against Israel because of her persistent disobedience and rebellion. The Lord had sent many warnings to them through the prophets who preceded Isaiah. He called them to repentance again and again but they did not hearken to the voice of the Lord. This prophecy served as God’s final judgment against a disobedient and obstinate people. He had resolved to give them over to the stubbornness of their hearts (Romans 1:18-32).

In order to enforce this judgment, the hearts of the people had to be made hard, their eyes blinded and their ears closed; otherwise they would have turned and He would have healed them, being a gracious, and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity (Jonah 4:2). This was something He didn't want to do for He had resolved not to forgive them until they were utterly destroyed.

Then I said, "For how long, O Lord?" And he answered:

"Until the cities lie ruined and without habitation, until the houses are left deserted and the fields ruined and ravaged, until the Lord has sent everyone far away and the land is utterly forsaken. (Isaiah 6:11-12).

Isaiah's declaration against Israel has been in effect from the day he made it until now. It was because of this same prophecy that the Jews were unable to recognize the time of God's visitation to them (Luke 19:44). The Lord Jesus resonated with this same prophecy during His earthly ministry (Mark 4:11-12).

All the circumstances surrounding the Lord's life and all that happened to Him was written in the law. His virgin birth, His earthly life and ministry, death and resurrection; they were all prophecies being unfolded before their own eyes (Luke 4:17-21). The seals were being taken off in their sight, the shadows were becoming realities, but they could neither believe nor understand.

As it is written: God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes so that they could not see and ears so that they could not hear, to this very day. Romans 11:8.

This is why they persecuted Him and even persecuted those who followed Him. They knew nothing, they understood nothing. For if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory or persecuted those who came in His Name (1 Corinthians 2:8).

All this was Isaiah's prophecy blocking their way. But this prophecy will be revoked and the people will see the truth and they will embrace it, they will walk by the light of that truth. All Israel will be saved because Israel will have her eyes opened and ears unstopped.

What then? What Israel sought so earnestly it did not obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened. Romans 11:7.

Even today, their hearts are still hard, their eyes are still blind and their ears are still deaf because Isaiah's prophecy still stands on their way. In these last days, the Father will soften the hearts of those who are still hardened, for those who were hardened are still walking in darkness, except for the elect few, the remnant.

In the last days, the hearts of the Jewish people will melt and they will understand scripture. The veils over their hearts will be taken off (2 Corinthians 3:12-18), the shroud that engulfs them will be destroyed (Isaiah 25:7). They will see the fingerprints of the Messiah from Genesis to Malachi and they will run to Him who was wounded for their transgressions and pierced for their iniquities (Isaiah 53). They will know the truth and the truth will set them free (John 8:31). They will come in; they will take their rightful place in the kingdom of their Father. The people walking in darkness will see a great light; on those living in deep darkness, light will shine (Isaiah 9:2).

A door will open for them and they will all come in - the lost sheep of Israel, they will come back to Jehovah, to Yahweh! They will see Him in Adam, in Abraham, in the Exodus, in the animal sacrifices, because His fingerprints are everywhere. They will see Him and run to Him to the glory of the Lord, amen and amen!

Salvation is from the Jews (John 4:22, Romans 9:1-5), it began with the Jews, it will also end with the Jews. So, the people of God will be saved, for they didn't stumble beyond recovery.

But I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! rather, because of their transgressions, salvation has come to the gentiles to make Israel envious. Romans 11:11.

Just as you who were at one time disobedient to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience, so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you. For God has bound all men over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all.

Romans 11:30-32

For a season, the Lord allowed the Jewish people to be blinded, to be kept out of their inheritance to allow the full number of gentiles to come in. When the full number of gentiles have come in, the prophecy will be revoked and all Israel will be saved (Romans 11:25-29). The Father will be pleased to see the natural branches getting reattached to the vine, for the natural branches were cut off in order for the artificial ones to find a place in the vine (Romans 11:17-24).

The Lord has not forsaken His people or forgotten His covenant with their fathers. For though a mother may forget a baby at her breast, He will not forget Israel, her name is engraved on the palms of His hands, her walls are ever before Him (Isaiah 49:15-16).

At the moment, it's like Israel is caged, but the time of her release is on its way, she will soon see a bright shining light and she will return to the hiding place. Great will be that day when Israel will recognize Him as the One they had been earnestly searching and waiting for, for generations.

The Lord made an everlasting covenant with Abraham, according to that covenant, Israel is God's possession, so, all Israel will be saved.

He remembers his covenant forever, the word he commanded, for a thousand generations, the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac. He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant: 1 Chronicles 16:15-17

For these are the natural branches.

Theirs is the adoption as sons; theirs the divine glory, the covenants, the receiving of the law, the temple worship and the promises. Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them is traced the human ancestry of Christ, who is God over all, forever praise! Amen. Romans 9:4-5,

The ways of the Lord are right and just, this too is right and just.

When they rise, the Father will lavish His love upon them. The future Israel will be on fire for the Messiah. They will be zealous. Just as Paul was zealous for the law before encountering Christ, and totally shifted his zeal to Christ after his encounter with Him, so shall it be with Israel. They will be unstoppable, their love for the Messiah will be so great. They will love Him and give themselves fully to Him just like Paul did, for Paul was a shadow of what Israel will be in the end time. The final state of unbelieving Israel will be like the final state of Paul.

And, just as Paul was greatly persecuted for Christ, so too the Jewish people will be greatly persecuted in the last days, but they will endure it, they will consider it pure joy to suffer for Him (James 1:2). They will even desire to share the fellowship of His suffering (Philippians 3:10).

Their God will be generous to them, He will bless them with bounty, He will pour His Spirit upon them, He will multiply His grace over them, they will sing and enjoy in the Lord their God, He will bless them mightily, he will give them revelation and power and great wealth.

But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the gentiles, how much greater riches will their fullness be. Romans 11:12.

CHAPTER 17

DEVIATION OF THE CHURCH - THE LOST BOOK

Who have wandered away from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some.

2 Timothy 2:18.

The church has deviated from the path. The church is no longer walking according to the truth and light of the kingdom. The teachings of the church are not the teachings of the kingdom. The church has invented its own teachings; teachings that are not in alignment with the will of the Father. The church's teachings are far from the season the kingdom is in right now.

Men are in pursuit of things of this world. Messages have been tuned to align with that pursuit. They have been personalized to match the desires of those who stand on pulpits and not the will of the Father. There has been a great deviation from the truth of the gospel. The gospel message has disappeared from many pulpits. What is preached in many pulpits today is far from the truth of the gospel. The saving power of our God and the true message of the love of the Father has been discarded.

Men preach and encourage others to follow the way of Balaam, the way of seeking riches of this life (2 Peter 2:15-17). The train of the church has left its rail and taken a wrong course; this course is leading the church into destruction.

Many have been born out of this deviated gospel and live without a true idea of the true gospel, they are born into an erroneous church. These have inherited the lies and gone ahead to start ministries and churches born out of those lies. This is an entire church generation of falsehood and error; a generation of seekers of this world and not seekers of God (2 Timothy 3:4).

Truth has disappeared from many pulpits. In some pulpits, heaven cannot find a single trace of truth in the teachings of those who call themselves servants of God. Only a few churches, only a few men have stayed with The Message. Only a few have clung to the truth while many have gone their own way.

The deviation is not only in this area; the general conduct of the church is disputable too. The church has lost its true identity.

The church is a holy city, all that happens there must be centered on holiness. The sheep must be holy, the shepherds must be holy and all activities and operations of the church must be holy (Hebrews 12:22-24). The character of the church is supposed to reflect the identity of the One who owns it. The Owner of the church is Holy; He is a Holy God; the conduct of His church must reflect that holiness (Leviticus 19:2).

The church has been misled by the world, it has gone flat-out into the world, enjoying the patterns of the world. It has adopted the ways of the world because they seem pleasurable and easy to implement. The church has fallen because of its adaptation of the patterns of this world (Romans 12:2). Shouldn't the world be adopting patterns of the church instead?

The church is a place where people can go to, to learn the ways of the Lord so that they may walk in His paths (Isaiah 2:1-5). It's a place whose ways and functions should be modelled by the world. It's supposed to be a place of solutions, a place where the confused can receive clarity and peace concerning their situations (Matthew 5:14-16).

This is not the case with this current church, this church has no solutions and it provides no answers to the world because the church itself is corrupted and confused. People from the outside cannot come in for answers anymore because the church is powerless. The church has gone astray; it has taken a great deviation. It has gone too far and too deep into that deviation that it will take everything to bring it back to order.

But the Lord is merciful, He will never get weary of His church. He will do all that can be done to bring the church back to its senses. The Lord will do anything in His power to bring the church back to the true message and to the acceptable ways of the kingdom.

Many have gone astray; many have left the path.

The systems of the church are not in alignment with heaven. The ways of the church are not pleasing to the Lord. There is no love, there is no unity there. The people are like sheep without a shepherd. The shepherds are feeding God's people a wrong diet. The shepherds lie to the sheep, they sell lies to the sheep and the sheep buy those lies.

“Woe to the shepherds who misled My sheep,” says the Lord, “for they will not go unpunished. I will surely punish them.” Says the Lord.

This is why the broom of the Lord is coming for these lying shepherds. In this season, the Lord is coming to cleanse His church so that the misleading teachings can be thrown out and the truth of His word can find expression in the church. Those who have brought lies and disrepute to His Name will be judged. Those who have imported error and falsehood into the church will be judged.

The church is supposed to be the breeding ground for holiness, a breeding ground for good and for love, it is the pillar and foundation of truth (1 Timothy 3:15). But the pillar has been weakened, the foundations have become lies.

The church has destroyed the foundations that were put there by the Master Builder and replaced them with faulty ones; ones based on lies. God's people are being fed lies, they are digesting lies and walking about with the energy of those lies. Lies cannot produce anything good, lies cannot set people free. Only truth can set people free.

"If you hold to My teachings, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth and the truth will set you free." John 8:31-32.

This is why the church is not bearing fruit. This is why there is no distinction between the believer and the unbeliever. This is why the church has not been growing, there is no maturity. Where truth is not taught, there can never be growth or maturity.

Prayers and intercessions must be made for the church, so it can come back to its senses. Prayers and intercessions must be offered, so that the church can go back to the faulty foundations, destroy them and begin rebuilding. The church must wake up, it must arise from its fallen position and begin to teach what is in accord with scripture.

“Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine you.” Ephesians 5:14.

The church must begin to live and walk in truth, the church must begin to worship the Father in spirit and truth.

This is a time to worship the Father in spirit and in truth. This is the time to liberate the souls of men with the message of the cross, the true message of the Messiah.

There shouldn't be lies in the church. There shouldn't be buying and selling in the church (John 2:13-17). The church is God's sacred ground, God's chosen place, He put His Name there. He wants the happenings there to be in line with what His Name represents. His Name is holy; His Name is love. The dealings of the church must be in alignment with its Owner.

When a vehicle leaves its lane and takes the wrong one, a collision is inevitable. The church must learn to stay on its path. Only a church that is confined to the word of the Lord can stay on the right path. The scriptures were written and given to the church as a guide; so that the church can follow the word and flow with the word. The church is supposed to live by the word. The church is not allowed to live outside the confines of the word. The church and the word are one, they must never be separated. The Lord Jesus Christ is the Word; He is also the Head of the church. The church must honor the word. It must walk by the word. The church must honor the Head by honoring His word. The church must value the word and handle it as the only authority with which to govern the church.

This is what it was like in the days of King Josiah. The church in Josiah's time had lost the Book of the Law. This church too has lost the book, it has lost scripture, it has lost truth. By losing the book, the church has lost morality that is fit for the church. It has lost all that the church of Christ stands for.

But just like it was in the days of Josiah, that the lost book was found, this church will find the lost book too (2 Kings 22:8). It is time for the church to find the lost book. When the church finds the book and embraces it, order will be restored in full force just as it was in the days of King Josiah (2 Kings 22 and 23).

The church must come back to the truth of the gospel, the church must come back to the guide, to the counsellor.

Go back to the word!

Return to the word!

Leave the way you have taken!

Leave the way of Balaam!

Leave the way of error and lies!

Leave the way of darkness and death!

Embrace the way of light and life!

Embrace the way of peace and joy!

The way of victory and prosperity!

The only way that pleases the Father is the word. The Father Himself is governed by the word. He Himself walks by His word. He speaks His word and His thoughts are confined by His word. His word is the basis of His relationship with His people. He will only perform what His word allows Him to perform (Psalm 119:169-173 and Jeremiah 1:12).

The shepherds must know this, they must understand this, the Father loves His people, He gave them His word as a token of

His love. He wants them to walk according to His word and live victoriously through it (Joshua 1:8). He gave them His Spirit so that by the Spirit, they can be guided into all truth (John 16:13). He placed shepherds under them, so that the shepherds can help them understand the word and understand the place of the Spirit in their walk with Him (Jeremiah 3:15).

The church has been sleeping and while it was in that sleepy state, it slipped from the path. The church is now too deep into that dark path, it doesn't know where it is, nor does it know how to go back to the former path.

The church has lost the book that guided it and now there is no guidance. The church has embraced the books of this world. It has replaced the wisdom of God with the wisdom of men. Oh! What a dangerous place to be! What a dangerous thing to do, to walk away from the light of the divine scriptures!

The word is alive and active, sharper than any double-edged sword (Hebrews 4:12). The word is powerful, when men lose the word, they lose the power. The word is light, losing the word is losing the light. The people are walking in darkness because they lost the light. The word is spirit and life, departure from the word, is departure from spirit and life; which is an automatic entry into death (John 6:63).

You cannot deviate from the word and expect things to be normal, this deviation has brought every kind of evil into the church. All the dramatic things that are happening in the church today, all the worldly things that have found expression into the church, are a result of the deviation from the truth; the word of the Almighty God.

The word is powerful, it was not man inspired, it was inspired by God (2 Timothy 3:16). The church belongs to God, (Acts 20:28 and 1 Timothy 3:15) it must be ruled by God, it must be governed by the ways of God.

This is the Father's call; the church must come back to the truth. The church must come back to the light. It must come back to righteousness. The church can only rule by righteousness.

The church is a hiding place, people should run to the church and find help. It should not be a place where people get problems; darkness, death and abuse. It's a place of safety, a place of refuge (Psalm 27:5). It is called by the Name of the Lord and thus it must replicate and manifest the character of its Owner (2 Chronicles 7:16).

This is a call for the church to make a roundabout turn, the tables must be turned upside down. Those who buy and sell in the temple courts must be driven out. Truth must be told, lies and evil must be flashed out.

The Lord

This is My church. I paid the price to buy this church. I paid a painful price, a costly price to sanctify it for Myself. It pains My heart to see men profaning My Holy Name, defiling My holy place. It pains Me. The chaos in My church must be put to an end, the lies must be put to an end, the darkness must be expelled out of My church.

I am light, there is no darkness in Me (1 John 1:5). I want to see light in My church. I am Spirit, I am life, I want My life in My church. My people must receive life. My people must rejoice in My salvation. I want change in My church. I desire truth from the innermost being (Psalm 51:6). I desire to be worshipped in spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

CHAPTER 18

HEAVENLY REWARDS

Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done.

Revelation 22:12.

The end will come like a torrent. In a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, the church will be taken. Those who are ready for the Bridegroom will board their ride to heaven. All those who have walked faithfully with the Father, all those who have kept their garments clean will be taken. They will disappear from the face of the earth forever. Those remaining will try to look for them, but they will not be found anywhere on the earth.

Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed – in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. 1 Corinthians 15:52-54.

It will be a strange happening; a phenomenon that has never happened before. Great numbers of people leaving the earth in a dramatic way. Men who have lived to please the Father disappearing from the face of the earth to enter their eternal inheritance. The Lord is coming to give His people rest; they will enter Sabbath - the eternal Sabbath - the real Sabbath

(Hebrews 4:9-11).

Israel's Sabbath was only a shadow of the New Covenant Sabbath, while the New Covenant Sabbath is only a shadow of the eternal Sabbath that is to come. Everything that is happening in the kingdom of God on the earth now will have its fulfillment in heaven. What was done during the Old Covenant is done in the New Covenant in a better way, but in heaven, the same will be done in perfection, it will be eternal. This is how the Lord arranged everything.

If mankind could embrace the reality of the rapture, if all believers were prepared for this grand departure, everyone would make it, because the blood was shed for everyone and the will of the Father is that everyone should leave for heaven on that day. But most of God's people make the wrong decisions, so many of them will be left behind.

Heaven is waiting for that day when the remnant of the earth will be harvested. Great joy shall surround those who will make it through the rapture. They will be welcomed by the Lord with eternal joy. From that day on, they will enter a new realm of life, they will cease to be human for they will become spirits. Their joy will never end - they will have unending joy in the presence of their Father, the Father Himself will be overjoyed to have His children with Him for eternity.

The loving Father rejoices over the souls of His people. He desires to have every soul for Himself. This is why He shed the last drop of His blood to redeem the last one of them. Blood was needed for the redemption of man; not ordinary blood, but holy, innocent blood. The Lord Jesus was willing to pay the price. He had power to resist this command, but he obeyed the Father and shed His precious blood. Those who are washed by His blood must hold on, they must keep pressing on towards the goal, in honor of the blood that was shed for them.

After everything has been said and done on this planet, the Lord has a wonderful plan for His people; it's a wonderful plan in a wonderful place, a place like no other.

The raptured souls will be welcomed in heaven; they will be ushered into the presence of the Father where their eternal inheritance will be given to them. They will be given rewards reserved for them. They will rejoice in their inheritance, none of them will be overwhelmed by what is allotted to them because what they will receive will be many times better than what they anticipated.

The Lord is a good rewarder, a generous and gracious God, He will lavish His people with heavenly treasure; the treasure they themselves had accrued in heaven while they were on earth. The Lord is mindful of His people, He knows each and every person intimately, every man's desire is laid bare before Him. Even those inner desires that men have but don't know they have, have been taken care of in his heavenly package. He has prepared customized rewards for each man; yes, even personalized dwellings Heaven will reward men even for the smallest acts of obedience; obedience inspired by love and produced by faith. Heaven honors every small thing that has been done in the Name of the Father.

*And if anyone even gives a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is my disciple, I tell you the truth, he will certainly not lose his reward. Matthew 10:42.

So, men will receive rewards based on those things they did for the Father with a right heart and with the right motive - for the Father does not judge as men judge. Men look at the outward appearance; God looks at the heart. (1 Samuel 16:7).

Only those things which men have done for the Father with the right motive, will be rewarded (Proverbs 16:2). Whatever was done with the wrong motive; (to please self or others, fear or whatever motive), will have no place in the kingdom; for whatever is not true cannot enter heaven. Heaven opens its arms only to that which is true, that which is love. Men must always weigh their motives because anything done without the love motive has no eternal value (1 Corinthians 13:1-4).

Therefore, judge nothing before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God. (1 Corinthians 4:5)

Heaven is where the reality of God will be made fully manifest; that He is real, that He is love, that He is holy. All aspects of the Father will be made manifest there, and men will forever be in awe of the kind of God they are serving.

Wake up Oh sleeper and rise from the dead and Christ will shine His face on you! (Ephesians 5:14), to make you ready for what is coming upon the face of the earth, to make you ready for the rapture that is at hand, to make you ready for what's expected in this hour.

The Lord is coming for His own. The Lord is coming for those who bear His likeness. He is coming for His children; He is coming for His friends. He is coming for those whose hearts are centered on Him, to take them so they can be where He is (John 14:1-3), so they can live in His house; for there are many rooms in His house.

What a God! What a mighty God! What a glorious God! What a God worth serving! There is no God like our God; not on this earth, not in the past, not in the present, not in the future. There has never been a God like this, mighty in power, glorious in beauty, doing great and mighty things, showing love to thousands and forgiving the iniquity of His people. He is an awesome God; He is wonderful God.

Listen and understand this, the Lord of love is also the Lord of justice. He will bring in the harvest of the earth into eternity but the same God will also take those who don't believe Him to hell. This is a sad thing and yet it is true. The Lord has given each man an opportunity to choose what is right. He has given man a chance to choose between life and death (Deuteronomy 30:19), and many have chosen death.

*Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only son. John 3:18

Refusing to believe in Christ is choosing death. The Lord is offering His people life and life to the full. The Lord is patient, He is long suffering, He will not send anyone to hell without giving them enough warnings. This is one of those warnings.

CHAPTER 19

THE BATTLE OF ARMAGEDDON

Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

Revelation 16:16.

I will show you how the earth's last battle Armageddon will be started, how it will progress and how it will end. As I am speaking now, the battle has already started. It's like a small seed of the war was already planted on the ground. The seed has already germinated, the plant that was birthed is growing little by little and very soon that plant will begin to flower. It will bear fruit and when that fruit ripens it will be time for the war of Armageddon.

The war of Armageddon is on play behind the scenes; it started in the minds of men. Even on the ground, there is evidence that the war is getting closer and closer. This war cannot be avoided; it was determined by the Father. It will take place between Israel and other nations of the world. Nations will ally with one another against Israel, God's chosen people.

Those alliances will be targeted solely to destroy Israel. The purpose is the annihilation of Israel. As it was in the days of Haman (Esther 3), so shall it be. The purpose shall be to annihilate Israel, to make sure that Israel does not exist on the world map.

This is the enemy's plan. Satan knows the love of the Lord for Israel. He knows the Fathers love and concern for Israel. He knows how God cherishes Israel, that Israel is God's first-born son.

Then say to Pharaoh, "This is what the Lord says: Israel is my first born son, and I told you, 'Let my son go, so that he may worship me.' But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your first born son. Exodus 4:22-23.

The devil is angry and bitter at Israel for ushering in the Savior into the world.

His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born. She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter. And her child was snatched up to God and his throne. (Revelation 12).

The devil will incite nations throughout the world, nations that already hate Israel. These, together with other nations will get together to fight against God's inheritance.

They will come together at a place called Armageddon, and there, war will break out. But, this war has already started, it started in the hearts of men. Men are planning the war right now. The devil has incited men to start this war - the last war on the earth.

No matter the number of men or nations rallying against Israel, the outcome of the battle is already determined in The Book. Israel will prevail, the nations will be baffled, they will be confounded because the Lord will hold on to His promise,

He never forgets covenant. He still remembers the covenant He made with Israel (Revelation 19:19-21).

Even now, the Lord Himself has His heavenly army ready for this; this army is ready to fight for Israel during this war. The Lord Himself will be Commander over this army. He will fight for Israel and He will win. The nations will utterly be destroyed. At the end of this war, Israel will be greatly feared and greatly dreaded by the world. The enemy army will not see the unseen forces behind Israel's victory, they will only see Israel winning.

Armageddon is on its way, Armageddon is coming, it must come so that the Lord can display His power to Israel and that Israel can remember their God - a God who remembers covenant. These things will take place. People on earth talk about Armageddon and discuss it as a causal topic, but this war will happen on the face of the earth in the last days.

These allied forces will not be fighting the people for the people's sake, they will be fighting against God. This is why the Lord Himself will take charge as Commander; for those who hate Israel, hate Israel's God.

Israel will win. Israel has always won. Their God will fight for them. It's a win, win situation for they are covered by covenant. The Lord never breaks covenant, no matter how far Israel has strayed, no matter their ignorance, rebellion and arrogance against their God, they will never be rejected. They have been unfaithful to their God, but their God will not be unfaithful to them for He cannot deny Himself.

He and His word are one. The word He speaks is forever settled in heaven, it can never be broken. He will do as His word says. He will fight for Israel, and so Israel will win. Israel will never quit, for God never quits. Israel will never surrender for the Lord never surrenders. She will fight and she will win because her God is with her.

Heaven will be torn open, and heavens' forces will come down. The Lord Himself will come down. There will be confusion in Armageddon, there will be many dead bodies lying on the ground; many will fall, many will die. And Israel will triumph on that day. Men will fear the God of Israel.

The Lord has not changed. He who won before, wins now, will forever win (Hebrews 13:8). He who won battles for Israel in the past will win again.

The Lord God Almighty is a God of war and a God of vengeance. He will pay His enemies back. He will entice all those who hate Israel, all who conspire against her. He will harden their hearts, and they will come to fight so that He may destroy them.

The enemy's army will be large, the soldiers of the Lord will be few in physical numbers, but the spiritual soldiers will be many. Archangel Michael and his soldiers will fight and win on the Lord's behalf. And many will be those slain in the Valley of Armageddon – The Valley of Death.

The war of Armageddon is coming, it must come, it must happen so that scripture can be fulfilled, for whatever was written must be fulfilled. This is the battle of the ages, a physical battle between light and darkness.

This is why it's important for Israel to get back in line with their God. He is their only hope to win this battle. They cannot fight this battle alone. They must come back to their God. They must come back to their Savior for He will be their shield and help on that day. Israel must rise to the reality that God Himself is the Commander of their armies. He was Commander in the days of Saul, the days of David and the days of all the kings of Israel.

It is time Israel began to make God central in all their dealings. It is time for Israel to hearken to the voice of their God. Only then will they be able to work together and fight together in this end time battle. Two cannot walk together unless they agree, (Amos 3:3). Israel must return to the Father. Israel must be reconciled to their God. When this happens, Israel will be on top of situations against their enemies. They will know the plans of the enemy ahead of time just as the king of Israel knew the plans of the king of Aram beforehand in the days of Elisha (2 kings 6:8-12).

Armageddon will be the greatest war the world has ever seen - the greatest war Israel has ever fought. All the past wars will look like nothing on the onset of Armageddon. It will be a brief period of warfare, but great will be the casualties the Lord will inflict on His enemies. The Lord will come in His anger, He will come in His fury against His enemies, to liberate His chosen people.

They were chosen then, they are still chosen now, He loves them. He remembers the covenant He made with their fathers; Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The covenant still stands. He loves His people though they don't love Him, He loves His people though they are rebellious to Him. He loves His people even though they are arrogant. They are the sheep of His pasture, He cares about them.

The battle is looming. Armageddon is in the cooking. Soon, what is in the cooking will come on the table, and everyone will feast according to his hunger, according to His appetite. But the final outcome of the battle is already known for the scripture has made it known. And what has been written cannot be revoked. It shall happen, it will happen for the Lord God Almighty has determined to make it to happen.

ENOCK'S GOOD REPORT

Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him.

Genesis 5:24

Enoch was a man of intimacy; he was a man who loved My presence more than he loved anyone or anything else. He was a man who clung to the presence. He desired nothing else on this earth, all he desired was My presence. He was always in My presence, for those 300 years He walked with Me, all He did was to think about Me, talk about Me and everything He did was centered on Me. He became so deep in Me that he and I became one - we became one. He was a man of deep love and passion for the Father, a man who got so deep in My heart. His love for Me was what attracted Me to him.

He was a man of faith, He walked with Me by faith, He believed that I was there, He believed that I was real, he believed in Me. The entire world did not believe in Me, but He did. He kept searching hard after Me, every day of His life. He was always in search of Me, asking questions concerning spiritual matters, seeking to know more about Me and more about heaven.

He was always there with an empty heart and open mind willing to receive what I had for him. And because his heart was prepared as good ground, I gave him as much as he wanted, I invested so much in him. I gave him so much light, so much revelation, so much insight and so much illumination.

He was so full of revelation about heaven, about the world to come, even about eons to come. I told him many things because he was available, he was always available. He made himself unavailable to the world. He cut himself off from the world, He divorced himself from the world and married Me.

Yes, he was a man of the presence, he enjoyed being with Me, it was never a burden for him to be with Me. He never got enough of Me, he wanted more and more of Me every day, every night. His hunger was insatiable, his thirst unquenchable. All he desired was Me, all he was searching for was Me, all he valued was Me. Yes, he was searching hard after Me and I was found by him. I made Myself to be found by him because He was searching hard after Me.

I am looking for men like him. I am looking for men who are willing to search hard after Me (Psalm 63:8). I am looking for men who are willing to go all the way with Me - any depth, any height, any width and any breadth. To such men, I will do as I did to Enoch. I will give them insight and knowledge and understanding. I will give them anything and everything, I can never deny such men anything.

In My presence is fullness of joy and eternal pleasures on My right hand (Psalm 16:11). And those who come close to Me, those who cling to Me like Enoch did, I will give those eternal pleasures, I will give them pleasure after pleasure from My right hand. I will never run out of pleasure for them, I will never run out of blessings for them, I will never run out of gifts. I will pour unto them - good measures, pressed down, shaken together and running over, for I am a generous God, I am a gracious God. I will never stop blessing such men.

Enoch was dead to himself, he never wanted himself. He was dead to the world, he never desired the world. He was dead to all things of this life, he was only alive to Me. There are very few in this generation who are willing to leave all for My sake. There are very few in this generation who can empty themselves so I can fill them with Me.

I am raising men like him in this generation, men of his caliber, men of his heart, men of his devotion. You are one of them, you are doing well, you are searching hard after Me, you have passion for Me. You are a woman of intimacy; you love Me more than you love yourself, you love Me more than your family, you love Me more than you love the world. You are like Enoch, you are like Me.

As you keep walking with Me, you will go to higher heights, you will go far. He who knows the Father will be known by the world. He who is close to the Father's heart will experience the Father's glory on the earth.

THE MYSTERY OF THE LAST TRUMPET

I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the son of God and those who hear will live.

John 5:25

The days are almost here when the fruit of the earth will be harvested for eternal life. The days are near when the last trumpet will sound and the faithful in Christ will be taken to heaven. When the trumpet sounds on that day, not everyone will hear it; some will hear it but some will not (John 5:25). Those who will hear the trumpet will be taken while those who will not hear it will be left behind.

The trumpet will sound, it will be loud enough for all to hear, but many will not hear it and they will be left behind. This includes unbelievers, believers who don't know God's voice and believers who know His voice but they are too absorbed with things of this world to hear it on that day.

The sheep knows the Shepherd's voice, so when the Shepherd calls on that day, only His sheep will hear His voice. Those outside the sheep pen will not hear it.

My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.

John 10:27

These ones who will hear are the ones qualified to go to heaven on that day. Their ability to hear that voice will be proof that they belong to the Shepherd. The ones who will not hear His voice are the ones who do not know the Shepherd's voice. They will not hear the voice because they are not accustomed to it.

Believers are supposed to have ears to hear. They are supposed to know the voice of the Shepherd so they will be able to hear His voice that day. If the sheep does not know the Shepherd's voice now, they will not be able to discern it then. This is why the body of Christ must be taught to know the Lord personally and to hear His voice for themselves.

Every believer has the potential to know the Lord for himself. By His grace, the Lord gave that empowerment to all believers. Believers are supposed to hear the voice of the Master now, otherwise, they will not be able to hear His voice on the day of rapture and so, they will be left behind.

Even some of those who know Him and hear His voice now, will fail to go to heaven that day because they will not be able to hear that voice, their ears will be tuned to other voices (Mark 4:19). This is the reason why many believers will be left behind. Even now, many of God's children have their minds set on earthly things.

Their destiny is destruction, their God is their stomach, and their glory is their shame. Their mind is on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so *that they will be like his glorious body. Philippians 2:19-21.

The church must set its mind on things above and not on earthly things (Colossians 3:1-4). The church must be taught to hear the voice of the Master. He put His Spirit in every man so that every man can have direct communion with Him. Man has no excuse, everyone who is born-again has the Spirit of the Lord in him and he must know that voice and follow it.

The trumpet sound will be the voice of the Shepherd calling His own sheep by name. It will be the Shepherd calling every man's name from the Lamb's Book of Life. The Shepherd knows each sheep by name. At that call, all names that are written in that book will be called aloud, but some sheep will not hear their names called.

*The watchman opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. John 10:3-4

Whoever must go during the rapture, must hear his name called, then he must respond to the call.

*Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me. Revelation 3:20.

Men must be trained to hear the voice of the Shepherd. They must be taught to discern His voice, otherwise, many sheep will register absent at that time of the call.

That trumpet sound will mean the call of all names of all righteous men. Just like it is with a school roll call, every name that is registered there is called out aloud. A student who is present and alert answers to his name. The one who has hearing problems and the one who is distracted by other things, or is outside the classroom at the time of call cannot hear the calling of his name and so, he is reckoned as absent.

This is not the Master's will, the Father wants every sheep to be inside this eternal pen, but men have always chosen wrong. Men have opted to learn the voices of this world, they are experts at hearing worldly voices but their Father's voice is strange to them. Worldly voices have appealed to them; alluring them, causing them to hate and despise the voice of the Shepherd. They despise the inward voice, the still small voice, they despise the written word, even God's voice in their dreams and visions, they despise God's voice spoken through His prophets.

Because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.
Romans 8:14.

Only sons of God will be led into the air to meet up with the Lord; the voice of their Father will lead them there. They will run to Him because they are accustomed to hear His voice.

Men must prepare for the coming of the Lord; one way to do so is learning to hear His voice. It is crucial that the body must be taught to hear the voice not only for rapture's sake, but also for the sake of their own spiritual progress and for the fulfillment of their God ordained destinies on the earth.

Every man is supposed to walk on the path that was set for him by the Father (Jeremiah 1:5, Ephesians 2:10). The only way he can do that is by being led by His voice – He is the only one who knows everyone's path and destiny. Only God's voice can lead men to green pastures and to quiet pools of water. Only His voice can lead them to their ordained destinations on earth (Psalm 66:12).

Many in the body of Christ do not know the Master's voice, no wonder they always stray, wandering in the hills for days, for months, for years. They have not tuned their ears to hear. It is imperative these days that men know the voice of the Lord. Hard times are coming on the earth, there will be so much confusion, so many false teachings and so many false prophecies. It will take a man who knows the voice of the Master to discern these. Men must be led by the Spirit, they must not be led by themselves, other men or any other thing.

If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit.
Galatians 5:25.

The church must be alert, the church must always watch and pray. The church must always be aware of the happenings around them and always alert of the Lord's coming which will be signified by the voice from heaven.

Those who will be left behind will have no excuse. These messages are meant to educate the body. These messages are the ways in which the body of Christ is supposed to be prepared for the rapture. The body must prepare their own arks; they must be conformed into the image of the Lord through the renewal of their minds. The body of Christ must also be able to hear the voice of God in the midst of the world's confusion and all other noises.

The Lord

The trumpet will sound; I will speak once but many will hear My voice. The trumpet will sound once, but many names will echo through that one blast. This will be a name calling trumpet. Believers will hear their names called and they will rise at the mention of their names; their bodies will be changed.

Men always ought to be alert. Men always ought to tune themselves to heavenly sounds. Men ought to hear the sounds of heaven in these last days. It will help them against many evils coming upon the face of the earth. Times are coming when those who don't hear the voice, will be in great danger. Victory will only be for those who know the voice, hear it and obey it.

There will be hard times ahead and men ought to be on top of situations. Men can only be on top of situations if they know the voice of the Lord, the voice will lead them to one victory after another (2 Corinthians 2:14). I will whisper into the hearts of men, not to eat that, not to buy that, not to go there. If a man does not know My voice, that man is destroyed, that man is lost.

Hard times are coming ahead, the body must to be prepared. Men must be told strongly that the voice of the Lord is free to all believers. I have given men the gift to hear My voice and to be led by it, for sons are supposed to be led by their Father, and sons must hear their Father's voice.

Not many are familiar with My voice, even now many are being led astray by false teachers and false prophets because they don't know My voice for themselves. If they knew My voice, I would shield them, warn them, stop them. Men ought to know My voice, men ought to follow My voice. The only acceptable voice to be followed is Mine. If men do not know My voice, any wolf can come to them, disguised in sheep's clothing, then they will be led astray and be devoured (1 Peter 5:8). I don't want them devoured by the enemy. I love them, I want them safe, I want them kept, I want them preserved, I want them for Myself.

Teach My people to know My voice, teach them they can hear

My voice.

CHAPTER 22

THE SPIRIT OF CAIN IN THE LAST DAYS

But mark this: there will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money,

2 Timothy 3:1-2

There will be many happenings in the end time season. There will be a cocktail of events taking place on the earth, there will be many controversial things, unbelievable things happening on the earth. Just as the Lord has reserved his best wine for last (John 2:10), the enemy has also reserved his best blows against humanity for last. But his best blows, his best strategies are nothing, they are incomparable to God's immeasurable love and power for those who believe.

In these last days, there will be trouble, unrest, plagues, famines and wars everywhere. This is why men must be made aware and prepared, for the things that are coming are unbearable. There will be pain and great losses. These things will be on a worldwide level; no nation will be spared.

One of the things to be expected is that the love of many will grow cold (Matthew 24:12). As a result, many will hate and betray one another. They will do it just to save themselves. Many will have no regard for human life, no regard for family ties or blood connections. Men will have no regard for anyone, only for themselves. The selfishness of men will be very great.

At that time, the One World Government will set rules that will oppress men and so, men will be willing to do anything against fellow men in order to please that government. Men will do anything to save themselves, even selling one another. Men will work against one another to destroy one another.

A man's own friend will betray him. Let everyone beware of his own neighbor, and put no trust in his own brother, for every brother is a deceiver. Jeremiah 9:4-5.

This will be the spirit of Cain in full manifestation; for whatever was, will be again. A time is coming like that when Cain killed his own brother in cold blood.

Now Cain said to his brother Abel, 'let's go out to the field.' While they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him. Then the LORD said to Cain, 'Where is your brother Abel?' 'I don't know,' he replied. 'Am I my brother's keeper?' Genesis 4:8

This will be a time when brothers will stab each other's backs. Men will be betrayed, killed and imprisoned with the help of their own family. Unimaginable, brutal things will be done on the earth.

Men will be angry at one another for no reason. Oh! The things that will soon take place on the earth! Who will understand them! Who will believe them! Men will lose their humanity. Man's instinct will be lost - there will be no fear or respect for life.

For I have come to turn

"A man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law – a man's enemies will be members of his own household.’ Matthew 10:35-36.

Like Cain, men will refuse to be their brother’s keeper. Somehow, it’s like that even now, but it will get worse. Family will mean nothing; everyone will be for himself. Pride and selfishness will take over. There will be no shame in all this; man will be the most selfish being on the planet. Even beasts will be better off than man. It will be a state of degradation that has never happened on the earth before. Man’s love for self will be too overwhelming, he will have no space to love anyone, all he will want is for himself and all he will love is himself.

Just as sin abounded before the flood, so shall it be that sin will abound in the end times. The difference will be that at the conclusion of the earth, the intensity of the same sins will be multiplied many times over. While Cain murdered Abel in secret, in this generation, brothers will murder each other in public - for all to see. Men’s eyes will be closed to the truth, lies will abound, darkness and death will abound because it will be a time for darkness to reign.

As it was in the beginning of time, so shall it be in the end. Before God created the heavens and the earth; the earth was dark, empty and formless, it will be the same at the end (Genesis 1:1-2). In the beginning darkness was ruling until God commanded light to be. At the end, the darkness will not dissipate – the earth will be concluded at the height of deep darkness.

THE LOST FELLOWSHIP

Yet I hold this against you: you have forsaken your first love.

Revelation 2:4

Last time we talked about the word foundation being destroyed – the book being lost, fellowship with the Father is another area that has been forsaken and underplayed by the church. Man was created for the Lord; he was created as a possession of God. He was created to serve the Lord, to spend time in His presence. So, man is a servant of the Lord; the kind of service where man is supposed to live in the presence of the Lord continually and from that place, servanthood to other men can be born. It is from that place of fellowship that man is supposed to run with God's errands.

Man was created to serve God through fellowship so that from that place, he can serve other men. The service to other men must root from the presence of the Lord. Any service to men that does not root from the presence of God is unacceptable; it does not have a foundation; it doesn't have roots.

If man's service to men must be acceptable before God, it must root from the presence of the Lord; fellowship with the Father. This is the order of heaven. God wants men to be with Him. He wants men to enjoy His company, to enjoy His presence and out of that order, they will be allowed and go and do assignments on earth on His behalf. These will be assignments that they have received from the presence of the Lord.

*Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold. Matthew 24:12.

Many are busy working in the fields in disregard to this arrangement. Their work is vain, it is done in vain for they have not followed God's order, they have placed the cart before the horse. They have not followed the right order; they have broken the foundations. They are doing God's work without a foundation, and, anything that is built without a foundation falls to the ground at the slightest wind or at the slightest rain or flood.

Any work done for the Lord must be done from the fellowship foundation. Man must first answer the call to fellowship; where man and God can have intimate time together, where they can talk and have sweet fellowship. Out of that fellowship, ministry must be born.

*God who has called you into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ is faithful. 1 Corinthians 1:9.

A pregnancy must emanate from God's bedchamber. Many have neglected this order. They have run to the field without taking time in the presence of God. Whatever they are building has no foundation. They are building a structure whose blocks are not cemented to one another. The only acceptable material for cementing the blocks of ministry is the love of the Father. How can they have the love of the Father if they have not absorbed that love? How can they absorb the love of the Father if they do not spend time in the presence where the love is absorbed?

So, you see, out of a faulty foundation emanates a faulty building. Even the blocks the builder is using will be faulty, the walls will be faulty and the final product will be faulty. Such a building will crumble right here on earth and in heaven that building will not be counted, for heaven doesn't recognize what doesn't come from heaven.

Remember, if the Lord has not built the house, they labor in vain them that build it (Psalm 127:1). Anything done without the involvement of the Father is vain. There is no benefit, there is no reward, that thing will not make eternity (1 Corinthians 3:10-15). For whatever is born of the flesh is flesh, whatever is born of the Spirit is spirit (John 3:6). Whatever is born of the flesh is flesh and it will remain on the earth which is the flesh.

Men must understand the order of God. The all-wise God knows that this is the only workable order through which man can work for Him. God's people must understand that the ways of God are perfect, they are right and just (Deuteronomy 32:4, Psalm 89:14). They should not question the ways of God. They should not use the ways of the world to serve God. The Owner of the kingdom has His own ways; those ways must be followed (Isaiah 55:8-9).

A man who does not spend time in the presence of God does not have what it takes to build the church of God. A man who is not built by the Lord cannot build anything worthwhile. He himself is not built and he has no materials for building the work of God. Materials for building God's work must only be sourced from Him – for He provides for His own. Man must spend time in God's presence so that God can build that man and give him materials for building His church on His behalf (Mark 3:14 and Matthew 4:19).

Man must spend time in the presence of God so that he can first build a healthy and strong relationship with God; a lasting, solid relationship. It's from that foundation that a man's ministry is born and built, that ministry will last and reflect the character of its Owner. Many ministries do not reflect the values of the kingdom because they did not start from where the values are taken from which is the presence of God. Only God knows the values of His kingdom. So only those who commune with Him will know those values. Ministry exploits are possible only when men embrace those values and run with them. Lasting fruit and much fruit is born from this order (John 15).

The Lord wants men to bear fruit in His church; fruit that will enter eternity, not temporary fruit (John 15:16). The only way is to abide in the Father and receive instructions from Him. Men must only perform those instructions received from the Father and when they do, the Father will back them up, for He honors His word, He watches His word to perform it (Jeremiah 1:12). Everything becomes light and easy when it happens in this order (Matthew 11:28-30). Much fruit, lasting fruit is born from this order, to the glory of the Father.

Whatever comes from the Father, is the Father's? And if it's His, there will be no hardness or heaviness doing it; it will be light and easy, for you will not be carrying your yoke or your burden. It will not be you doing it, but Him doing it through you. It will be light and easy because He carries it with you and exploits will be inevitable.

The reason the church is not making great strides in the world is because the foundations are out of order. The fellowship foundation is one of those foundations that has been broken.

Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold. Matthew 24:12.

Man has forsaken his first love; (Revelation 2:4). He does not want to spend time in the presence of the Lord. What he wants is what God has and not what and who He is. Man must return to his first love. He must return to the place of fellowship. The wife must return to the bedchamber. The wife must only be impregnated there and by Him. The Husband wants to have intercourse with His wife in His bedchamber - He wants her to leave that place with pregnancy as evidence of that intercourse.

The fruit born from there must resemble the Father, just as a child resembles his biological father. No matter how little the resemblance may be, there must always be a resemblance between the fruit and the one who gave the sperm.

It is only within the confines of God's bedchamber that the man of God must be impregnated with vision. And he must leave the chamber with that vision, to implement it on the ground. But man's permanent place, his place of residence must be the presence of the Lord (John 15, Psalm 91:1 and Psalm 90:1). That is where a man should live and move and have his being (Acts 17:28). This must be his resting place. Man's home should be at the feet of the Lord, day and night.

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught and overflowing with thankfulness. Colossians 3:6-7

Man should dig deep into the Lord and root himself in Him. The Lord wants every man to be a palm tree like I was; a man of the presence. A man who never left the presence, I was in the presence, all the time, every time. It is possible to love the Father that much; to want Him and nothing else. Even as he goes to serve fellow men, the man of God must still be in Him; thinking about Him, talking about Him, and always conscious of His presence. Always conscious that wherever he is going, whatever he is doing, it's because of Him. He must be the motive, He must be the goal, the source, the foundation, He must be the all.

The church has not only lost the book; the church has lost fellowship too. The wife has left the bed chamber; she is staying in the other room. The wife does not care for the Husband. The Husband is looking for a wife who can stay close to Him, one who enjoys His company. The Husband is looking for a wife who is keen to bear children for Him; legitimate children.

The only way the wife can bear children for the Husband, is by allowing herself closeness to the Husband, allowing herself to be touched by the Husband. She must allow him the intimacy, giving her body to Him; for a wife's body does not belong to her only, it also belongs to her Husband (1 Corinthians 7:4). The Husband and wife belong to each other.

The Husband is looking for a wife who understands this principle. A wife who can be close to him, close to His heart, so that He can confide in her, tell her how He loves her, the plans He has for her and show her things they can do together, how they can work together as they walk together. There must be that connection between the Husband and His wife every time. This is the Father's desire. But the church has lost fellowship just as she has lost the book. Fellowship is gone, this loss of fellowship is the proof of the loss of love. The church lost her love first, then the need for fellowship was gone.

Men despise the place of fellowship; they despise the presence of God. They fellowship with the world instead. By doing so, they despise the place of power and victory, the place of peace and joy and strength. The only place where man can grow and be refilled is the presence of God (Psalm 16:11).

Man is running with his own agenda, his own plans and his own vision for God's work. He is using his own ways, his own means and his own materials for doing this. This grieves the heart of the Lord for He desires that all work done in His Name should root from Him, and be done His way - for all things are His; they are supposed to be done by Him, for Him, and through Him for its only in Him that all things hold together (Colossians 1:16-18).

There is no way a man can get direction from Him if he has no connection with Him. Even if the Lord may try to speak to such a man, a man who has lost fellowship, that man cannot hear His voice nor understand His language. He cannot discern the heavenly sounds because he is too busy with the sounds of this world. Educate God's people about fellowship. Educate them about spending time in the presence of the Lord. There is so much that happens there - to man's advantage.

The Father is all in all, He lacks nothing. He has all the power and all the wisdom. He can do all things by Himself for He is God. He was there before time began. If He was there before time began, He can live without anyone or anything forever and ever. But He deliberately involves man in His dealings because He is a loving and generous Father who wants to share all He has with man.

What a privilege? What an honor to be included in God's kingdom ventures? Shouldn't man feel privileged about this? Shouldn't man feel honored? Shouldn't man be grateful for this? Yes, man should be very grateful for this great honor the Father has bestowed on him. It's a great honor to have access to divine secrets. But these secrets can only come from His bedchamber. That's the place of man and God.

In these last days, He desires His union with man to go to higher and greater levels. He has many secrets to share with man. There is so much light that He wants to give. He can only do this within the confines of the bedchamber. He can only do this within the private space where God and man can sit and talk. There are levels of fellowship and communion with Him that have never been reached, these can be reached and He wants them reached.

The Lord is not looking for servants, He is looking for intimate lovers, close companions, men who are willing to have time with Him, talking to Him, discussing important matters of the kingdom with Him.

Those who will make themselves available for deep fellowship will enjoy all that the Father has for humanity in these last days. He has secrets that He wants to unravel before His people. There are treasures; innumerable treasures that He wants to reveal to men. There are things in man that man himself does not know about or understood – the Father will be revealing such - even the potential that is in each man -the things that man can do to prosper materially in this life. These can only be released based on the level of fellowship man has with God. Man must make Himself available to God. He must get closer to the heart of the Father.

He wants to be close to every man, He loves man that much. Man is God's jewel, His very crown. Man is God's heartbeat. He loves man with a love that cannot be explained or thoroughly comprehended. His love for man cannot be controlled or restrained (Jeremiah 31:3, Romans 8:38-39) and John 3:16).

This is a call to fellowship in these last days, this is a call to intimacy; the Father wants to have intimacy with every man (1 Corinthians 1:9). He wants to unravel the destiny of everyman, to reveal the potential of everyman, to show every man's inheritance in Him. But unless the man is tightly connected to God, he will never know his inheritance.

He wants everyone in Him so He can talk to each man individually. That's why He invested His Spirit in men; so that all men can have equal access to His voice, access to fellowship. The church must awake to this message; the church must awake to the reality of the love of the Father.

I enjoyed fellowship with the Father to greater depths. He wants many to enjoy the kind of fellowship I enjoyed with Him, the dimensions of communion that men in this generation have not reached. He wants men to reach those depths. It's His desire to see men walking so close to Him and so deep in Him. He enjoyed my walk with Him and He will enjoy walking with any man who dares to walk with Him that close (Genesis 5:24).

He loves all men; there is no favoritism with Him. He is looking for men who will make themselves available to Him; men who will choose to make themselves unavailable to the world. Then there will be no limit to the depth of the walk and intimacy they will have with the Father.

If only men knew! If only he can understand God's love for him! If only man could grasp how much excitement the Lord gets when He finds men who are willing to have intimacy with Him! Oh! He longs for men who can come to him with no petitions, but only an open heart, a heart for fellowship. The Father gets overwhelmed with such men. He will never stop blessing and rewarding such.

He has wonderful things for the end time church, the only way to enjoy them is through fellowship. Draw close to Him and He will draw close to you (James 4:8). He doesn't want to force any man into fellowship, He wants every man to choose for himself. "Seek me," He says, "and you will find Me, if you seek Me with all your heart." – (Jeremiah 29:13). He wants to be sought with the whole heart. The ball is in the court of a man.

Pass this message to the churches, pass it to the people so that they may know the love of their Father and His desire to have them close to Him. This way they will enjoy the earth. He wants them to enjoy the first fruits of their inheritance before graduating into their eternal inheritance (Romans 8:23).

Man was made to enjoy earth and its fullness first before enjoying the eternal glories of heaven. Many have gone to heaven without enjoying earth first because they never took the time to get to know the One who called them, they did take advantage of the Holy Spirit residing in them.

Time has come, the Father wants men to know the full extent of His love and the place of the Holy Spirit in their lives. Father God's greatest desire is to have intercourse with every human being. He finds excitement and fulfillment when He communes with man. He sees man as a wife, a friend, a child. He sees man as Himself and a part of Himself. He loves man so dearly.

THE RESURGENCE OF EXTINCT CREATURES

I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing can be taken from it. God does this so that men will revere him.

Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before, and God will call the past to account. Ecclesiastes 3:14-15.

The happenings of the end shall be like the happenings of the beginning, for whatever was shall be again. Although these things will not happen in the exact way as it was in the past, the principle shall be the same. I have spoken about some of these things, giving you many examples. This is so that the earth can prepare to see the past revisiting them, former things being reborn.

Many things will come back to life in these end times. Things that were thought to be inexistent, will exist again, for nothing in this life goes into extinction. All things are preserved by the word of Him who spoke them into existence. So, everything that was before shall be again, the One who made them has preserved them by the word of His power, to be revealed at the proper time (Hebrews 1:3).

Men must be made aware of this so that as these begin to reappear they should not be surprised, they should not be afraid, but rather look at it as a wake-up call, an indicator that the end is here.

One such thing is the resurgence of animals that were thought to have gone into extinction, many animal species that were there before and disappeared for one reason or another will resurface in great numbers. There will be a resurgence of fish varieties in the seas and oceans and lakes and rivers. There will be a resurgence of wild animals in the forests, birds of the air and insects that went missing. Whatever was there before but vanished or exist in very small numbers will find their way back, in great numbers.

Just as the lost book will be found and intimacy restored, the missing creatures will also be restored. The creatures that went missing, the creatures that went hiding, will once again find expression on the earth. Even now, they are regrouping, even now they are reorganizing themselves and reproducing in the places where they were preserved. Even now, some of these have already started manifesting on the face of the earth. Even now, the first fruits of what I am saying are already here.

Everything that has been declared for the end has already started taking place in small proportions, because the end is now. But this is just an introduction, all these will be multiplied many times over in the end. Creatures that were only known by previous generations will be seen again on the face of the earth.

The Father wants men to know in advance what He is planning for the end of times. The end shall be like the beginning; things of the end shall replicate things of the beginning. Because the Father knows the end from the beginning, He introduced the beginning with the end in mind.

Remember Noah, everything on earth was swept with the flood waters except for those that made it into the ark. After the flood, everything came back to life, the creatures that were kept as seed also multiplied. The Lord hid those creatures in the ark and they were kept safe. It shall be the same in the end, the creatures that God has kept safely in the ark of His word, will be let out after the flood waters of the earth subsides - revival. The door of the ark will be opened and hidden creation will be let loose.

The Fathers love will allow their resurfacing, their resurgence, and this will be made possible at the manifestation of the sons of God. The creation that is groaning as in the pains of childbirth has its hope in the sons of God, because the rising of the sons will bring their liberation from bondage to decay so that they can be brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

*I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God. Romans 8:17-21

Right now, creation is in captivity and it desires freedom, it desires to live for what it was created for, for creation too was created for a purpose. Its bondage is coming to an end, the bondage of seeds not being able to germinate, the bondage of eggs remaining unhatched for decades. For not only will there be a rebirth of animals, but vegetation and all other creation too. Ancient rivers and lakes that dried up will receive water again.

The only hope of creation are the sons that the Lord is raising in this hour. The Father desires the liberation of all creatures on the planet. Everything He made has a purpose in His kingdom and He wants that purpose to be made manifest on the earth to His glory.

When sin abounds, creation suffers because creation was made to serve man. When man rebels against God, when men leave the path of light, creation gets affected. Creation is living in fear and its liberation is in the hands of the sons of God who have power to bring deliverance to them. Creation will rejoice and jubilate at the resurgence of the sons of God. There shall be a renewal of all things.

The ruler and steward of creation is man (Genesis 1:26 and 28) but man has not been a good steward of creation. Man is no longer ruling in favor of creation and creation has no leader. In Eden, creation enjoyed life with the leadership of a son of God called Adam. The sons that are being raised by God will be like Adam before his fall, they will be like Christ, they will have power and authority to rule over creation. These will rule and reign in favor of creation and the order of Eden will be restored.

THE ALIENS (UFO PHENOMENA)

The ‘aliens, and the flying objects, the ones they call Unidentified Flying Objects are another end time phenomenon. Tonight, I will talk to you about them.

For many generations, humanity has been in the dark concerning the sightings and encounters with ‘aliens,’ and the ‘Unidentified Flying Objects (UFO)’ associated with them. These sightings have been reported throughout the world. Men from different parts of the world have reported having been abducted by these beings. This has been a very controversial issue and one of great concern throughout the world. Governments and security agencies have made different contradictory explanations and remarks about this matter.

Men have confessed having personal encounters with these strange flying objects and the strange beings associated with them. This phenomenon classified as ‘Top Secret’ by security agencies began unfolding many generations back, but in these last days, the sightings and encounters with these beings will be greatly increased.

These beings were the first inhabitants of the earth; they were on the planet before Adam was created. These are a fraction of the angelic beings, the one third of angels that fell from heaven at Lucifer's fall. When they fell, they adopted physical bodies upon touching the earth. But because they had lost the glory of God and the atmosphere of heaven, they adopted distorted bodies and so, they became deformed creatures.

Soon after the fall, this group of fallen angels began to regret their rebellious act against God. They were disheartened with the level of degradation they had reached after leaving heaven. They became frustrated and angry with Lucifer for misleading them. They wanted to get back to the comfort of heaven and get things right with God. They were dissatisfied with Lucifer's leadership and so, they began to question his leadership and his intentions and thus, they rebelled against him. In his fury, Satan cast them out of the earth, they relocated and now they occupy an entire planet.

These are beings of great intellect, that is why they have advanced technology; advanced ways of transportation and communication. They are more advanced than human beings because they are ancients. They devised their own technology according to the patterns they saw while in heaven. They also live in a very organized atmosphere that is full of peace.

These beings are no longer connected to Satan, neither are they connected to God - they are entirely on their own. They are harmless though, being neither good nor bad. Their nature is different from that of the devil because they rejected him and they are no longer connected to him. Their visits to earth are not ill-intentioned, they neither come to harm man nor to destroy the earth. The purpose of their visits to earth is solely for research; they are trying to get back to their original home. Their greatest desire is to find a way back to heaven. They remember the beauty and bliss of heaven. They were in heaven so they know heaven, they have a faint picture of heaven and they know that heaven is a place to be. They know the wonders and joys of heaven and they want to get back there. They want to relate with man on that basis.

They think that their only hope of getting back to heaven is through man, that is why their greatest interest is man. These beings knew the plans of God concerning man before man was released on the earth. They know that God has a connection with man and they want to use that connection to get to God. They have been trying to figure this out for a long time.

They still have knowledge of heaven; what it was like and what happened there that led to their exclusion. Since their fall, their desire has always been to be reunited with the Father, to find their way back to heaven. They also believe that to achieve their goal, they will need humanity because of humanity's ties with God.

In recent years, the memory of these beings has been dwindling down, they are now in a confused state. They don't clearly know who they are. That's why they come to earth to interrogate men and do their research on them.

They abduct men solely for research purposes, to interrogate them, extract information from them and carry out experiments on them. These beings are neither good nor bad, but as far as extracting information from man is concerned, they can use any means; good or bad. Their intention is not to harm the human but to extract information from him. Unlike the devil and his cohorts, they are not there to kill, steal or destroy. They have no emotions; they neither love nor hate, they feel neither pain nor pleasure, they have no joy or sorrow. They are just neutral creatures.

In these last days, their sightings and encounters with men will be a common phenomenon. They will be spotted everywhere throughout the world even in places where they have never been reported before. This is so because these creatures have an instinct about the coming rapture and the end of the world. They think they can make it back to heaven through the rapture. But, this is an absolute impossibility. They have no chance of getting back into heaven although they regretted their rebellious act. They don't belong to God, so, they cannot make heaven. They don't belong to Satan, so they cannot make hell either. So, on the final day, these will not be cast into the lake of fire, rather they will be destroyed on the day heaven and earth are destroyed.
